FOREWORD

The vital statistics of Durham, N. H., in both town and church records, are not plentiful. There are periods of many years in which nothing of this nature was recorded. The marriages and baptisms of the Rev. John Adams, never heretofore published, have been used in this work. The records of Province, State and County have been searched for marriages, wills, deaths, etc. The court files at Concord have been the "Happy Hunting Grounds," where something new and interesting can always be found. The kind helpfulness of attendants makes it a pleasure to search in the rooms of the Secretary of State. A large portion of this volume has been gathered by correspondence from private family records.

Many errors in dates will be detected probably, since sometimes the town record, the family Bible and the tombstone may give three different dates for a birth or a death. Correspondents often contradict themselves in such matters without knowing it, and they are sure afterward that they were not in error. The proofs have been read and criticised by three or more persons, and this is the best we can do, with present knowledge.

The usual genealogical abbreviations appear, b. for born, m. for married, d. for died, s. p. for sine prole, without issue, dau. for daughter, ch. for child or children, bapt. for baptized, l. for lived, rem. for removed, est. for estate, adm. for administered, sometimes O. R. for Oyster River. The families are arranged alphabetically.

Statements are not made herein, unless the evidences are convincing, although all the evidences are not always stated, for lack of space. A probability, or a reasonable supposition, is followed by an interrogation point. Such suggestions are given as pointers for further researches by the reader.

If we care nothing for our ancestors, our descendants may care nothing for us. We must know our relations in order to know ourselves.

GENEALOGICAL

On the 20th day of November, 1684, Timothy Prout, Edward Willey and Edward Willis became surety to the town of Boston for Richard Wilkins, William Stewarte, John Adams, John Langdon, Samuel Gray, John Simons, Thomas Atkinson, and Archibald Eraskin [Erskine] and their families. [See report of the Record Commissioners of Boston, Vol. X, p. 75.]

It is known that Stewarte and Erskine were Scotchmen, and it is probable that all of this company were from Scotland. They had recently arrived and somebody had to be surety for them, lest they might come upon the town for support.

The above John Adams had wife, Avis, and the next event recorded concerning his family is the birth of their daughter, Jane, in 1686. He bought a house of Nathaniel Williams, 20 Dec. 1688, and is called "cordwainer" in the deed. He sold "tenement and shop" to Abraham Blish, 19 Jan. 1690. The deed is witnessed by Peter Barber. June 20, 1693, Mary, widow of Henry Phillips, sold to John Adams, Sr., of Boston, cordwainer, a house occupied by Samuel Gray, doubtless the same person as the one named among those who arrived with John Adams in 1684. It was on the highway leading to Roxbury, bounded east by Bishop's Lane, which is now Hawley Street. William Gibbons was one of the witnesses. June 21, 1693, John Adams, Sr., cordwainer, and Avis, his wife, mortgaged to John Richards the house last mentioned, "tenement occupied by Samuel Gray." The mortgage was discharged 23 Feb. 1693/4. The marriage bond of Peter Barbour, tailor and Sarah Willey, spinster, of Boston, was signed by John Adams, shoemaker, of Boston, 16 Nov. 1687. [See Court Files, Boston.] Peter Barbour was another Scotchman.

On 10 Feb. 1693, John Adams, Sr., cordwainer, and wife, Avis, deeded to Mathew Cary a tenement late in the possession of Mary Phillips and now in the tenure of John Adams. The deed was subscribed 9 March 1693/4. This same house was sold by Mathew Cary to Samuel Lynde, 15 Dec. 1694, "occupied by John Adams, Sr.," and 5 Jan. 1696/7 Mathew Cary sold to Andrew Belcher the same house, "now or late in the tenure & occupancy of John Adams, cordwainer."

The Superior Court of Judicature, Nov. 1699, had a case of Edward Gouge, plaintiff, and Anthony Checkley, defendant, "Whereas Edward Gouge recovered a judgment against John Adams of Boston, cordwainer, for £12 and costs of suit, and execution was returned to court with non est Inventus," etc. Anthony Checkley was surety for John Adams and pleaded that he never set hand to the bond, but the verdict was against Checkley and he paid the bill, which was receipted 20 Sept. 1704. It must have been John Adams, Sr., of whom it was said in 1699, non est Inventus, for John Adams junior was in Boston, 1699-1705. John Adams, Sr., had died. Rev. Hugh Adams writes that in 1701 "four of my young brethren and sisters were orphans left to my brotherly care," and "my own godly mother the widow Avis Adams died" in 1699 as the result of a pestilential disease contracted in nursing the Rev. John Cotton at Charleston, S. C.

John and Avis Adams had children as follows:

2. JOHN m. Hannah Checkley, 19 Oct. 1693.
3. HUGH b. 7 May 1676; m. Susanna Winborn.
4. MATTHEW m. (1) Katherine Brigdon, (2) Meriel Cotton.
JANE b. 21 Feb. 1686; m. 20 July 1713, Joseph Harding, at Chatham, Mass.
ANN b. 20 Feb. 1688; m. (1) 13 Feb. 1706, Wm. Flay, (2) 23 Sept. 1714, William Ings of Boston.
WILLIAM bapt. 8 March 1690; d. young.
WILLIAM bapt. 12 Feb. 1692.
EBENEZER bapt. 23 Dec. 1694.

2. John Adams (John) married, 19 Oct. 1693, Hannah, daughter of Anthony and Hannah (Wheelwright) Checkley. Her father was attorney general. John Adams, Jr., was cordwainer, shopkeeper, captain and lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia. Jan. 8, 1700, the heirs of Henry Stevens convey to John Adams of Boston, shopkeeper, a house at the south end on highway leading to Roxbury, bounded east by Bishop's Lane, the same house that his father had once bought, lived in and sold. The next year John Adams sold this house and moved into a brick house adjourning, where he was a tenant of John Wainwright. Oct. 4, 1712, Thomas Newton wrote a letter to Capt. John Adams of Annapolis Royal saying that "Mr. Wainwright is now sueing out his mortgage of the house your aunt and I live in and the house your family lives in, and creditors have a deed of the Overplus thereof when that and your mortgage are satisfied, and I am desired by the creditors to know what is due to you or yours, which I desire you will let me know by the next conveniency." [See Suffolk Court Files.]

John Adams was still at Annapolis Royal in 1718. In 1741 he was in Boston and was blind. He then sold to John Gibbons, at the end of a law suit, the brick house above mentioned, for £500. The deed is witnessed by his brother, Matthew Adams, and by Hannah Newton, who was daughter of this John Adams* and had married Hibbert, son of Thomas Newton above mentioned.

* Several persons named John Adams have been confused by some genealogists. John, son of Alexander Adams, seems to have died before 1684. See Suffolk Deeds, XIII, 222. John Adams, malster, son of Joseph Adams, malster, married Hannah Webb and died 2 Nov. 1702. His widow married 12 Dec. 1705, Samuel Winkley, and died in 1707. This John Adams had children, (1) Samuel born 6 May 1689, who married 21 April 1713, Mary Fifield, and had son, Samuel Adams, the patriot, born 16 Sept. 1722; (2) Hannah who married 22 Sept. 1710, Samuel

By a further study of the records it appears that Ann, wife of William Gibbons was aunt of Capt. John Adams of Annapolis Royal, son of John and Avis Adams. She was, therefore, sister to John Adams, Sr., or to his wife, Avis, or possibly William Gibbons was brother to Avis Adams. Capt. John Adams had children:

AVIS.

HANNAH m. Hibbert Newton.

ANNE.

REV. JOHN bapt. 26 March 1704/5; d. Jan. 1740, aged 36.
[See N. E. Reg. Vol. XXXIII, p. 132.]

3. Rev. Hugh Adams (John), born 7 May 1676, graduated at Harvard in 1697. The next year he went to South Carolina, where he was pastor of several churches, and remained there till 1706. In a letter he states that "our precious godly mother Avis Adams departed this life October 6th last" (1699). This was at Charleston. [See Mass. Hist. Coll. Vol. VI., 5th series, p. 12.]

He married, 1701, as he himself writes, Susanna Winborn, undoubtedly daughter of the Rev. John and Elizabeth (Hart) Winborn, and granddaughter of William Winborn.†

Holbrook of Weymouth; (3) Abigail born 6 Oct. 1691, died 4 July 1712; (4) John born 4 Nov. 1693, bound out in 1707. He chose uncle Peter Adams for guardian; (5) Joseph born 20 Dec. 1695, bound out; (6) Mary born 20 Dec. 1695; (7) Bethiah born 20 Aug. 1697, died 8 Dec. 1702; (8) Thomas born 2 March 1700; (9) Abijah born 11 May 1702, who married 1725, Deborah Cutler, and later had second and third wife. He died 9 Feb. 1768, aged 66. I am indebted to Miss Virginia Hall, genealogist, of Boston, for much information about these often confused persons, named John Adams, of Boston.

† William Winborn signed the Exeter Combination of 1639 and was Clerk of the Writs in Exeter in 1643. He and wife, Elizabeth, lived in Boston, 1644-62. He was chosen town clerk of Manchester, Mass., in 1686, where his son, John, was preaching. William Winborn of Malden, Mass., and his son, John, with wife, Elizabeth, sold land in Malden in 1687. [See Middlesex Deeds, VIII, 219.]

John, his son, was born in Boston 21 of 7th month, 1638, and married, 11 Sept. 1667, in Malden, Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Hart of Watertown, Lynn and Reading. She was born 11 Dec. 1651. Her father's will names daughter, Elizabeth Wenborne. Rev. John Winborn was minister of the church at Manchester, Mass., 1667-86. The town records show that he left Manchester between 1690 and 1693. He is said to have died in 1707. [See History of Essex County, II, 1283.] No record of his family has been found. He may have gone to South Carolina, and in that state only the name Winborn is found in the census of 1790.

Susanna Winborn had a brother, Ebenezer, of Boston, who married, 11 May 1706, Lydia Prince, born 1685, daughter of Joseph Prince of Hull, Mass., who married, 7 Dec. 1670, Joanna, daughter of Secretary Nathaniel Morton of Plymouth, Mass. Ebenezer Winborn was a watchman in the south end of Boston from 1723 till 1758. He may have married (2) Elizabeth Gwinn, 24 Oct. 1744. He had children, Prince, who married 30 Nov. 1743 Mary Rogers and probably (2), 17 June 1765, Esther Johnson in Middletown, Conn.; Elizabeth who married 29 Oct. 1739, Bozoun Allen; Susanna who married 12 July 1734, Andrew Coffin; Joanna who married 29 Dec. 1736, Nicholas Foster, and Lydia born 13 Feb. 1706/7, who was living in 1739. This last is the maiden baptized in Durham by the Rev. Hugh Adams.

Under date of 1 May 1726, he records the admission to church of "Lydia Winborn, the maiden daughter of my wife's brother." April 6, 1718, he records the admission to church of "Susanna Adams, my wife. She was a member of the church in Carolina."

The Rev. Hugh Adams died in Oct. 1748, aged 72. [See chapter on History of the Church in Durham.] His widow, Susanna, was living in 1766.

† There is in the library of the Mass. Historical Society a manuscript letter of Rev. Hugh Adams dated 22 April 1736, to Mr. Nathan Prince, Fellow of Harvard College in Cambridge, requesting the speedy return of his son, Winborn Adams, who had been sick. He says that in the space of seven months eighty-six persons had died in Durham by a "pestilential fever and Quincey."

THIRD GENERATION

5. Dr. Samuel Adams (Hugh², John¹) born June 1705 at South Edisto River, S. C., spent his life as a physician in Durham. His father records, under date of 11 March 1721/2, "Then was received my son, Samuel Adams, to own his baptismal covenant and to be under the discipline of our church after his standing propounded 3 Sabbaths." There were admitted to the church in Durham, 7 April 1728, "Samuel Adams, my son, and Phebe Adams his wife." Circumstantial evidences are convincing that she was daughter of Lieut. Philip and Hannah (Sawyer) Chesley. The tombstone of "Phebe Adams the wife of Doct^r Samuel Adams" may be seen on the hilltop back of the house in which she lived, in the Sullivan burial ground, showing simply that she died in 1743. Doubtless Dr. Samuel Adams and his father and mother were buried here, though no tombstones mark their graves. Samuel Adams m. Joseph Adams of Newington, was cousin to President John Adams, was born in Newington, 14 Feb. 1791. He married Sarah, daughter of Stephen and Mary (Dudley) Sanderson of Waterford, Me. Mary Dudley was descended from Gov. Thomas Dudley and Gov. John Winthrop of Massachusetts. He was known as "Reformation John Adams" and was a noted evangelist, serving many pastorates in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts. He died at Newmarket 30 Sept. 1850.

His son, Joseph Martin Ruter Adams, was born in Durham, 10 May 1838, and has long lived at Adams Point, the old Mathes Neck, at the entrance to Great Bay, where he now has a summer resort, delightfully situated. He married 1 Jan. 1860, Olive Esther Libby and has children as follows:

ASH

Thomas Ash witnessed a deed in Boston 2 (12) 1652. Thomas Ash, perhaps the same, signed a petition from Dover, N. H., in 1689. He lived near the head of Johnson's Creek. He married (1) Hannah Chesley, daughter of Philip and Elizabeth, (2) Widow Mary Rollins, or Rawlins. His will, 1718, names wife, Mary, son, Thomas, daughter, Hannah Pierce, to whom he gave five shillings, and "other daughters." Hannah married Benjamin Pierce* 30 May 1714.

Thomas Ash, Jr., had wife Eleanor. She and children, Mary, Thomas, Judith and Benjamin were baptized in Dover 26 March 1736. In 1743 Thomas Ash and "Ellinor," his wife, sold to John Gage 25 acres with house, orchard, etc., on road from Dover to Cochecho Point. Judith Ash married John Ellis, 20 Dec. 1752.

Eleanor Ash married in Somersworth, about 1763, William Whitehouse, Jr. Benjamin Ash signed a petition from Lebanon, Me., in 1757.

Widow Mary Ash and Judith, her daughter, were baptized 28 Sept. 1718.

AMBLER

John Ambler bought, in 1703, the place that once was owned by John Hill, at Oyster River Point, on the shore of Little Bay. Aug. 7, 1717, he bought of Edward and Sarah Wakeham six acres formerly in the possession of Nicholas Done (Dunn), which Wakeham bought of Widow Elizabeth Done. Other lands he bought of Joseph Kent and of Samuel Edgerly.

* Benjamin Pierce (Joseph³, Anthony², John¹) was born in Watertown, Mass., 25 March 1677. He removed to Dover and there married (1) 7 Sept. 1705, Elizabeth Hall, (2) 30 May 1714, Hannah, daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Chesley) Ash. Tate's Journal says that Hannah Pierce died 16 Sept. 1777. Children were Benjamin born 11 Dec. 1706, schoolmaster in Somersworth in 1736; Joseph born 22 Oct. 1709; John born 19 May 1715; Elizabeth born 17 May 1717, who married James Stackpole, great-grandfather of the present writer; Ebenezer born 2 Feb. 1720/21; Israel born 16 Feb. 1723/4, who married 7 Jan. 1748 Elizabeth Curtis of York; Martha born 18 Oct. 1725, who prob. married 14 Sept. 1747 Daniel Goodwin; and Thomas born 15 May 1727, who married Hannah, daughter of James Heard.

John Ambler married (1) Hannah, widow of Robert Watson. Dr. Quint said she was daughter of Thomas Beard, but Hannah is not mentioned in Beard's will, and in the inventory of Robert Watson's estate she alludes to "brother Kent." She was probably daughter of Oliver Kent. Robert Watson, born 1641, was slain in the massacre of 1694, and his wife and son, Joseph, were carried to Canada. Mrs. Hannah (Watson) Ambler died 8 April 1706, as Pike's Journal says.

John Ambler married (2) 6 Nov. 1706, Elizabeth Trickey of Newington. He married (3) 20 July 1725, Elizabeth, widow of Samuel Edgerly and daughter of Capt. John Tuttle. John Ambler lived on a point of land near Ambler's Islands, on the present farm of Hon. Jeremiah Langley. He was constable in 1708, selectman in 1716, deacon in 1718, and elder in 1721. He was living in Durham 10 June 1739, and is mentioned as deceased 20 Dec. 1748. The following children appear on the Dover records:

William Beard was at Oyster River in 1640. His garrison stood east of Beard's Creek. His wife, Elizabeth, survived him. He gave land to James Huckins, 19 April 1675. He was killed by Indians, about the first of November, 1675. His property was divided between his wife and Edward Leathers.

Thomas Beard, born 1608, had a grant of land at Sandy Point, on Dover Neck, in 1642, and, with Valentine Hill, a grant of Oyster River Falls in 1649. He was in Barbadoes in 1668 and then gave to his wife, Elizabeth, a power of attorney. He left widow, Mary, who married William Williams. His will, 16 Dec. 1678, names wife, Mary, and children:

BICKFORD

George Bickford and William Bickford were inhabitants east of the Kennebec River in 1664. Andrew Bickford, Lawrence Bickford and William Bickford and others had a grant of the lower end of Arrowsic Island, near the mouth of the Kennebec, in 1679. John Bickford was of the Isles of Shoals in 1642, and his estate was administered by Philip Tucker in 1662. Edward Bickford was of Portsmouth, 1660-86, and had wife and children. He was a carpenter and lived on Sagamore Creek and was licensed innkeeper, 8 Oct. 1686. Mary Bickford and her son, Nicholas, are named in records of Court at Portsmouth in 1676. Elizabeth Bickford was a witness in 1669 and 1679. Samuel Bickford, born 1642, was of Salisbury, Mass., in 1667. He married Mary, daughter of Edward Cottle, and removed to Nantucket. He had daughter Mary born in Amesbury, Mass., 8 June 1668.

John Bickford, grandson of Richard Cator, died about 1690, leaving widow, Jane, who married John Dockum, and daughters, Agnes and Mary. Agnes married Samuel Lary of Exeter. Mary was a cripple and died, unmarried, before 1709.

All these are mentioned in order that they may not be confused with the families here traced.

John Bickford of Oyster River Point, according to two depositions made in 1669, was then sixty years of age. There are depositions of a John Bickford which make him to have been born in 1609, 1612, and 1615. There may have been several John Bickfords, and perhaps John, or the clerk, did not know just how old John was. Old depositions show that many persons varied in age from time to time. John Bickford bought of Darby Field, 16 July 1645, house and lot between Little Bay and Oyster River (except the breadth of a lot in the possession of Thomas Willey) and a piece of marsh at Long Point in the Great Bay, containing seven or eight acres, with a point of land adjoining. The first lot was already in the occupation of John Bickford. The second lot was at Fox Point, in what is now Newington. Thirty acres more were granted to John Bickford senior at Fox Point in 1653, showing that there was another John Bickford in Dover at that time, perhaps the Bickford who married a daughter of Richard Cator of Bloody Point. John Bickford of Oyster River was freed from training in 1671 by reason of age. According to the first deposition he would then be 62 years old. He had wife, Temperance, and I think she was daughter of the Rev. Joseph Hull, born 1626. [See Hull family.] John Bickford's will, dated 12 Feb. 1685, names only wife, Temperance, and daughter, Joanna. His wife, Temperance, died before 7 Oct. 1697. In the settlement of Temperance Bickford's affairs allusion is made by Thomas Bickford to "brother Smith," to "brother Burnham" and to "brother Bickford." His family, then, according to reliable evidences consisted of the following persons:

- ELIZABETH m. Joseph Smith, abt. 1668.
- LYDIA m. Francis Drew, abt. 1673.
- MARY m. Nicholas Harrison, bef. 13 May 1677.
- 2. THOMAS b. 1660; m. Bridget Furber.
- 3. JOHN m. Susanna Furber abt. 1684.

2. Thomas Bickford (John) was born in 1660, according to a deposition. He married Bridget, daughter of William Furber of Newington. He lived on the homestead at Durham Point, where he successfully defended his garrison house from the attack of Indians in 1694. His will, 31 Oct. 1705-4 March 1706/7, names wife Bridget and four children:

- JOANNA.
- 5. JOHN b. 1690; m. Deborah ———.
- 6. ELEAZAR m. Sarah Johnson.

4. Benjamin Bickford (John), born 20 Oct. 1672, had wife, Sarah, said to have been Sarah Bassum. Was she not Sarah Barsham, dau. of John and Mehitabel, born 167-? She married (2) about 1700 Jotham Odiorne. Benjamin Bickford had a daughter Temperance who, 18 April 1718, was wife of John Underwood. (His estate administered in 1727 and in 1743-62 she was Temperance Walton.) The Underwood children in 1743 were John, Benjamin and Mary, all of Portsmouth. Mary was Mary Hardison in 1747.

THIRD GENERATION

5. John Bickford (Thomas², John¹) was born in 1690, as a deposition shows. He was of Durham, 2 Sept. 1768, aged 78. He had wife Deborah ——— who was baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams 18 Oct. 1724. John deeded the homestead at Durham Point to son, Winthrop, 8 June 1771.

SARAH bapt. 29 March 1729/30 at O. R.; m. Abner Bickford at Newington, 3 Nov. 1754 (?).

MARGARET bapt. 1740 at Greenland; m. 17 April 1755, Benjamin Davis of Greenland (?).

7. Joseph Bickford (Thomas², John¹), born 1696, married Alice, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Rawlins) Edgerly. He was baptized at Oyster River 19 Aug. 1722, and was living in Durham in 1767.

Daughter m. ——— Shepherd.

8. Thomas Bickford (Thomas², John¹) is not named in the will of his father. Perhaps he was born after the will was made. Sept. 1, 1733, John Bickford of Durham sold to his brother, Thomas Bickford, shipwright, ten acres near Colley's Marsh, granted to his honored father, Thomas Bickford, in 1654. This creates difficulty, and the record is probably erroneous. There is no record of any grant to Thomas Bickford in 1654. The Dover records have the following, "Whereas it doth appear y^t Thomas Bickford had by ye Committee chosen for granting lands given & granted unto ye s^d Thomas Bickford forty acres of land at y^e west end of Long Marsh, . . . and a grant of forty acres near his whome Lott in y^e Plum Swamp," and a grant of ten acres of land "granted y^e 10th of y^e 2d mo 54 to Jn^o Bickford," etc. Here it appears that the grant in 1654 was to John Bickford and afterward was owned by Thomas Bickford his son.

Thomas Bickford's will, 8 April 1786–22 Aug. 1787, gives property to wife, Bethiah, and after her death to kinsman, John Footman, Jr., son of Francis, deceased. John Footman married Olive Bickford, 26 June 1750.

9. Jethro Bickford (John², John¹), born in Newington 15 Nov. 1689, married Hannah, daughter of John Downing, and lived on a part of the homestead at Long Point. He was a grantee of Barnstead. The following children were baptized at Newington:

BICKFORD

Thomas Bickford, born 1640, deposed in 1676, aged 36. He married Joanna, daughter of John Libby of Scarborough, Me., where Thomas Bickford had a grant of land before 1681 and signed a petition in 1680. The Indian wars probably drove his family to Dover, and this suggests a relationship between him and John Bickford of Oyster River Point, and the names of their children strengthen the suggestion. Jan. 12, 1727, John Bickford of Dover and wife, Elizabeth, sold to Zebulon Trickey, Samuel Small, Jr., and Moses Hanscom "all that my six acres of land situate in the Township of Scarborough in the county of York which was the ancient possession of my father Thomas Bickford late of Scarborough afores^d deceased." The same deed names also grandfather, John Libby, and mother, Joanna Libby. [See York Deeds, XII, 166.]

It is certain, then, that Thomas Bickford had son, John, of Dover, and similarity of family names suggests that he may also have had a son, Benjamin. Some have supposed that John Bickford of Oyster River, Thomas Bickford of Scarborough, and an unknown Bickford who married a daughter of Richard Cator of Bloody Point, Newington, were brothers. I am obliged to leave this undecided. Thomas had at least a son:

2. JOHN m. Elizabeth Tibbetts, 1 Dec. 1692.

2. John Bickford (Thomas) married, 1 Dec. 1692, Elizabeth daughter of Jeremy Tibbetts of Dover, and lived at Dover Neck. The following children are recorded in Dover and also named in his will, 25 May 1744-27 April 1757. The will names a wife, Martha, who may have been the daughter of Charles Allen of Greenland, who names a daughter, Martha Bickford, in his will.

MARTHA b. 23 July 1692 [1693?]; m. ——— Hanson.

3. THOMAS b. 18 May 1694; m. Esther Adams.

4. JOHN b. 10 March 1698; m. Judith Tibbetts.

BICKFORD

Benjamin Bickford, in 1694, had a grant of thirty acres next to his house on the highway leading from Bloody Point to Greenland, over against John Hudson's house. He was constable about this time. Dec. 7, 1702, he and wife Sarah, deeded to John Knight sixteen acres now in his actual possession, formerly the land of the said Benjamin Bickford's father, lying betwixt Pine Point and Bloody Point, bounded by the river on the east, by road on the west, on the north by land of Henry Langstaff and on the south by land of said Knight, formerly of Richard Cator, with one fourth of a sawmill between Knight's and the land now sold. This looks as though Benjamin Bickford might have been son of the ——— Bickford who married a daughter of Richard Cator. The will of Benjamin Bickford of Newington, 4 April 1724–2 June 1725, is signed by the same mark as the above deed, a well drawn capital B. The will mentions "wife" and the following children:

- MARY m. Joshua Crockett, 8 Dec. 1707.

2. James Bunker (James) seems to have married (1) Anne, daughter of James and Martha (Goddard) Thomas. [See Huckins.] He married (2) Martha, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Lord) Downes, who was born in 1691. By the second marriage there was one child. James Bunker had the homestead, and his 236 acres were divided, 15 May 1759, among seven surviving children. His estate was administered, in 1724, by his sons, James and Joseph. Before 8 Dec. 1725 the widow had married John Mackelroy. She married (3) after 1750 Philip Stackpole. James Downes, in his will, 1755, gave ten acres to his "sister, Martha Stackpole, wife of Philip Stackpole." She died at Dover, 24 Sept. 1792, aged 101 years.

BURNHAM

Robert Burnham, born about 1614, probably at Norwich, Eng., son of Robert and Mary (Andrews) Burnham, came over in the Angel Gabriel, which was wrecked off Pemaquid, Me., 15 Aug. 1635. He was at Ipswich, Mass., in 1636, in Boston, 1644, and at Oyster River in 1654. Carpenter by trade. He married, about 1646, Frances ———. She was not daughter of Valentine Hill, as many have guessed. Two hundred acres, which had been granted to Ambrose Gibbons in 1654 and were willed by him to his son-in-law, Henry Sherburne, were sold by Sherburne to Robert Burnham and were laid out to the latter, 9 Nov. 1661, on the south side of Oyster River, a mile or more below the Falls. Here on a hilltop may be seen the cellar of his garrison house, beautiful for situation and successfully defended against the attack of the Indians in 1694. Robert Burnham died at Ipswich, where a brother lived, 12 June 1691. His will, made the day previous to his death, names only his wife, Frances, and sons, Samuel and Jeremiah. Children were:

ROBERT b. 25 July 1647; d. 25 Feb. 1663.

2. SAMUEL b. 1649; m. ———.

ELIZABETH b. 27:8:1651; m. John Davis, Jr.

SARAH b. 1654; m. James Huckins abt. 1673, (2) Capt. John Woodman.

ROBERT b. 21:2:1664; prob. d. young.

2. Samuel Burnham (Robert) born 1649, died before 1720, leaving at least three children. The name of his wife is unknown. [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, XI, 358 and XIII, 253.]

MARY m. John Allen before 1720.

4. JAMES m. (1) Temperance Harrison, (2) Mary Hill.

FRANCES m. John Bartlett of Amesbury, Mass.

3. Jeremiah Burnham (Robert), born 1653, married Temperance Bickford, daughter of John and Temperance of Oyster River Point. There seems to be no evidence for the statement sometimes made, that he married Catherine Sherburne. No such person appears in the Sherburne Genealogy. He married (2) Mary, widow of John Spinney and daughter of John Diamond of Kittery. In her will, 1733, she names a son, Jeremiah Burnham. [See Maine wills.] Jeremiah Burnham is called sergeant in 1702 and was selectman in 1694. His son, John, was appointed administrator of his estate, 5 June 1718.

HANNAH b. 13 May 1690; m. 15 Feb. 1709/10, Samuel Smith.

THIRD GENERATION

4. James Burnham (Samuel², Robert¹) and Temperance, his wife, sold to John Downing, 8 July 1713, land at Fox Point, Newington, which Nicholas Harrison bequeathed to his daughter, Temperance Harrison. [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, XVI, 454.] James, son of Samuel Burnham, sold to Joseph Meader, Jr., 17 May 1714, land granted to Robert Burnham, grandfather to said James. [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, XII, 468.] James Burnham sold to Samuel Smith, 24 April 1718, eighteen acres which were sold by John Miles to Samuel Burnham, except one and a half acres sold to Hugh Adams. James and Mary Burnham sold to Jonathan Crosby, 22 Oct. 1718, land and buildings south of Oyster River, which had been sold by John Miles to Samuel Burnham. James Burnham is named in the will of Nathaniel Hill as his son-in-law, with grandchildren, Samuel, Nathaniel, Joshua and James. It appears, then, that James Burnham married (1) Temperance, daughter of Nicholas and Mary (Bickford) Harrison of Newington, and (2), about 1718, Mary, daughter of Capt. Nathaniel and Sarah (Nutter) Hill, who died before 1741. She was, probably, bapt. 22 Aug. 1726.

5. John Burnham (Jeremiah², Robert¹) married, 9 Jan. 1717/8, Lydia Chesley. He was then a widower. The name of his first wife is unknown. Lydia Chesley may have been daughter of Philip and Sarah. Family names suggest it. Jeremiah Burnham, John Burnham, David and Abigail Daniels, all of Durham, and William and Sarah Parsons sold to Jonathan Thompson, 6 Feb. 1749, lands in Durh m "granted to Jeremiah Burnham formerly of Oyster River, Gentleman, dec^d," and two acres and a half granted to Robert Burnham deceased. [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, XCIV, 76.] Administration on the estate of John Burnham was granted to his son, John, 30 May 1749.

Pike Burnham was a Revolutionary soldier from Durham and lived there in 1790. He probably removed from town soon after.

A John Burnham, Jr., married Elizabeth ———, and had three children. His widow married, 1807, Joseph Wormwood, as his second wife, and died 29 March 1852, aged 80 or 82. This John Burnham, Jr., was taxed only in 1803 and 1804.

A Joseph Burnham married, 1810, Sarah York of Lee.

BUSS

The Rev. John Buss, born 1640, probably son of William and Ann Buss of Concord, Mass., came to Oyster River from Wells, Me., where he had been minister and physician some years and where he was received as freeman, 7 July 1674, according to records of York County. He is supposed to have married (1) 12 May 1673, in Salisbury, Mass., Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Bradbury. It is certain that he married (2) Mary, daughter of Valentine Hill, whom he called, in 1718, his "late wife." At that time he had wife, Elizabeth, his third wife. He stated in a petition, 1718, that he had been laboring at Oyster River forty years and was then seventy-eight years old. His house was burned in the massacre of 1694. He died in March 1736, having been very poor in his old age. Pike's Journal says that Joseph Buss and William Buss were killed by Indians at Cochecho, 28 June 1689. Perhaps they were brothers of the Rev. John Buss. His widow was aided by the town till her death in 1768, and then the town paid her funeral expenses.

On 22 Aug. 1721, a suit was brought by Joseph Buss, Sr., of Portsmouth against Nathaniel Hill, Valentine Hill, Samuel Hill and David Kincaid, for trespass. The following statement is found among the papers preserved in the Court Files at Concord, N. H., No. 15139.

After the decease of Valentine Hill "the premises descended and came to his surviving children, which were Sam^l Hill his eldest son, Nath^l Hill, Mary Hill and Hannah Hill, which Mary Hill was afterward Buss and entitled to one fifth part of afores^d five hundred acres after sd ffathers decease. The s^d fifth part came and descended to her surviving children, vizt., to Joseph Buss her eldest son two thirds thereof and to her daughter Hannah Buss afterward Chesley one third part thereof, who were her only surviving children."

The children of the Rev. John Buss were, then, by first marriage:

2. JOHN b. 1676; m. (1) Alice Reynolds, (2) Sarah Wakeham.
ELIZABETH m. John Smith.

Children by second marriage:

3. JOSEPH m. Lydia Davis.

2. John Buss (John) born in 1676, as a deposition (made 23 Jan. 1753, aged 77) shows, had a grant of land, 25 June 1701. He married (1) Alice Reynolds, or Runnels, niece of John Reynolds of Cape Porpoise and probably daughter of Job Reynolds. [See York Deeds, XI, 31.] He married (2) Sarah, daughter of Edward and Sarah (Meador) Wakeham. On the 29th of Dec. 1743, John Kent and Mary, his wife, John Buss and Sarah, his wife, John Laskey and Abigail his wife, John Edgerly and Elizabeth his wife, sold to Caleb Wakeham their right in the estate of their father, Edward Wakeham, weaver, of Durham. [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, XXVIII, 7.] His first wife and son, Stephen, were baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, 14 July 1717, and she was admitted to church 18 Oct. 1719. The following children are mentioned:

STEPHEN bapt. 14 July 1717; m. Bethiah ———. Both sign a deed in 1743. She m. (2) William Willey, 1 Jan. 1761.

JOSEPH.

3. Joseph Buss (John) was of Portsmouth in 1719 and then received land from his father, the latter's right in the estate of Valentine Hill. Joseph was a joiner. He had wife, Lydia, in 1725, who was daughter of Timothy Davis. He died about 1756. The will of Lydia Buss, 1758-9, names son, Joseph Buss, daughter, Hannah Horney, Mary Buss late niece, and John Pain late nephew.

On 28 March 1763, Nathaniel Hill of Durham sold to Samuel Buss of Portsmouth one acre of land in Durham, near "the great house known by the name of the Busses house," by the mill pond. [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, LXVII, 462.]

William Buss of Durham, in 1775, had married Abigail, daughter of the late Joseph Wheeler. He then sold to Daniel Warner land that belonged to said Wheeler's estate.

John Buss was a soldier in the Revolutionary Army, 2 June 1775, aged 33.

He had a house lot of three acres and a half on "High Street," Dover Neck, which he sold to Thomas Leighton. He and wife, Elizabeth, signed a deed, 7 Aug. 1661. He alone sold to son, Thomas, one half of his lands, etc., 12 Aug. 1663, reserving only the room at the west end of the house. The following year he deeded the rest of his land to his youngest son, Philip, and 7 July 1673, he and his wife, Joan, deeded to son, Philip, sixty acres more. He had a grant, in 1652, of 100 acres "at a place called the Indian graves on the west side of beech hill." Joan Chesley testified to an event that happened at "our house" in 1667, the loan of a canoe belonging to Thomas Chesley. She had probably before that date become the second wife of Philip Chesley, senior.

July 3, 1699, Mary Chesley and Hester Chesley deeded to Elizabeth Chesley, wife of Thomas, land formerly "our fathers" and since "our brothers." Philip and Joan Chesley made depositions, 30 April 1685.

4. Thomas Chesley (Thomas², Philip¹) born 4 June 1664, married Ann ———. He died before 1700. His wife married Joseph Daniel and died before 1704. The following children are known:

His widow had a grant of land in 1711. Lived near the present village schoolhouse. Thirty acres were laid out to George Chesley, 2 June 1694, "on the north side of Joseph Jones land." Henry Rice, 1711, willed all his property to "Elizabeth Chaslee the onlie Lawfull daughter of George Chaslee deceased lat of oyster river," and Deliverance Chesley was named as executrix, but she renounced her right in favor of James Jackson, the deceased's son-in-law. This suggests that Deliverance was daughter of Henry Rice. He had a grant of 33 acres, 23 June 1701, on the south side of Oyster River, "near where Capt. Chesley old Mill Formerly stood," and also near "Basford old Chemble Back." This was laid out "at the request of his son George Chesley," 7 Aug. 1735. [See Vol. I of Town Records, p. 35.] I think that widow Deliverance Chesley married (2) Moses Davis, Jr.

15. GEORGE bapt. as adult 21 May 1721; m. ——— ———.
ELIZABETH bapt. 21 May 1721.

6. Joseph Chesley (Thomas², Philip¹) married (1) Hannah, daughter of the Rev. John and Mary (Hill) Buss, (2) 18 Dec. 1717, Sarah, daughter of John and Sarah (Martyn) Cutt of Portsmouth. May 1 1743, Joseph Chesley and James Chesley of Durham sold to their brother, Thomas Chesley, their right in the estate of Valentine Hill late of Dover, "our great grandfather." [See N. H. Prov. Deeds, XXX. 327, and Buss family.] Joseph Chesley bought of Sampson and Temperance Doe, 26 March 1707, land lying at the water side in Lubberland. This was at the head of Great Bay, and he gave his name to Chesley's Islands. His will, 13 April 1730—7 Jan. 1731, names wife, Sarah, and the following children:

ENSIGN JOSEPH b. abt. 1711; m. 15 April 1771, Comfort Smith, aged 16. Had one dau., Margaret, who m. 21 Nov. 1796, Capt. Joseph Chase of Portsmouth.

CAPT. SAMUEL CHESLEY'S GARRISON

16. THOMAS m. Mary Hill.

JAMES m. Sarah ———. He died in 1753 and Sarah administered his estate. They had dau., Susanna, bapt. 30 July 1749, and Joseph Chesley was made her guardian. Other children, William, John, and Elizabeth, were bapt. 23 March 1760.

BENJAMIN bapt. 9 June 1717. Not named in the will.

7. Capt. Samuel Chesley (Philip², Philip¹) married Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Smith. He was selectman in 1703 and captain in an expedition to Port Royal in 1707. He was slain by Indians while at work in the woods, 17 Sept. 1707. He had a grant of land, 30 May 1697. His widow married Amos Pinkham. "The late Capt. Chesley's garrison" is mentioned 29 Sept. 1707, which stood a few rods southeasterly of Dea. Winthrop S. Meserve's house at the present date. He had son, Joseph, and probably other children, as follows:

JOSEPH. He had wife, Hannah, 20 Feb. 1730-1, est. adm. 1740.

REUBEN. Had wife, Ann, and later wife, Margaret. L. in Madbury, 1758.

KEZIAH, bapt. 10 Dec. 1727 as "singlewoman"; m. prob. Timothy Hanson. Reuben Chesley and Timothy Hanson and Keziah, his wife, were administrators of the estate of Joseph Chesley, late of Dover, in 1740.

SAMUEL. The History of the County of Annapolis, Nova Scotia, p. 488, says that Capt. Samuel Chesley had a son, Samuel, born 1691, who had a son, Samuel, born 1713, who also had a son, Samuel, born 1734. The last Samuel was at the siege of Louisburg in 1758 and surveyed lots for New England emigrants at Grenville. He m. Eleanor, dau. of Samuel Moore. Samuel Chesley induced his brothers, Joseph and Benjamin, to go to Nova Scotia. Joseph soon returned to New Hampshire, but Benjamin settled in Wilmot, N. S., near the present site of Middleton. I mistrust that there is one too many Samuel Chesleys in this line of ancestry. The Joseph, brother of Samuel, here mentioned, may be the Joseph Chesley who settled in Windham, Me., and there m. 25 Dec. 1766 Abigail Graffam and had a large family, or it may be the Joseph Chesley, born in Durham 1744, who m. Sarah Drew and settled in Industry, Me., where he died in 1827, aged 84. [See Hist. of Industry.]

8. James Chesley (Philip², Philip¹) was killed by Indians at same time as his brother, Capt. Samuel, 17 Sept. 1707. Pike's Journal says, "Octo. 14, 1705, Sab: Sarah Chesley (formerly Huggins) the wife of James Chesley of Oyster River, died after 4 days sickness with malig: feaver." Dover records say that he married Thamsin Wentworth, 29 Dec. 1704. Some error as to dates. She was dau. of Dea. Gershom Wentworth and m. (2) Dea. John Hayes and had eleven children. James Chesley had one son:

17. JAMES b. 18 May 1706; m. Mehitable Waldron, (2) Lydia Horne.

9. Lieut. Philip Chesley (Philip², Philip¹) born about 1676, as a deposition shows, "aged about seventy seven years" in 1753, married in Wells, Me., 8 July 1706, Hannah, daughter of William and Sarah (Littlefield-Wells) Sawyer of Wells. She was born 9 April 1785 and was baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, as wife of Lieut. Philip Chesley, 1 Nov. 1719, and received into the church 24 May 1724. She is named as Hannah Chesley in the will of her father, 1718, with "two oldest sons, Joshua and Paul," evidently an error. Philip Chesley is called captain in 1707. He sold land, in 1731, to "two eldest sons," Lemuel and Joshua. In 1737 he sold to Lemuel Chesley land "granted to my grandfather, Philip Chesley." In 1756 he sold land to "Winborn Adams, Chirurgeon." In 1742 Philip and Hannah Chesley, Ichabod and Temperance Chesley, Jonathan and Mary Chesley sold land in Rochester to Peter Hayes. Another deed shows that they were brothers. Philip Chesley lived on the old Chesley farm.

18. LEMUEL m. Sarah Smith.

PHEBE bapt. 23 Feb. 1724; m. Dr. Samuel Adams.

DEBORAH bapt. 11 Sept. 1726.

10. Lieut. Ichabod Chesley (Philip², Philip¹) was baptized as adult 12 Jan. 1717-8. His widow, Temperance, and Stephen Evans were made administrators of his estate, 15 Dec. 1774. He lived on the north side of the Mast. Road, where Frank Bunker recently lived. He left 150 acres in the homestead, half of a saw mill, 200 acres in Nottingham, 240 acres in New Durham, and three fourths of the fourth division in Rochester, etc. Widow Temperance Chesley was taxed in 1777, 1783 and 1786.

12. George Chesley, (Thomas³, Thomas², Philip¹), I think to be the "bachelor" baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, 24 Dec. 1721, and the one who was killed by Indians 24 May, 1724, at the time when Elizabeth Burnham was mortally wounded. Samuel Chesley was administrator of his estate, appointed 2 Sept. 1724, and declared in the probate records to be brother of George Chesley. The inventory shows thirty acres of land, part of a sawmill at Lamprey River, part of a mill at the Hook, yoke of oxen, boards, etc., the total valued at £154 15s. This may be the George Chesley, to whom fifty acres on the north-west side of Lampril River were granted, 23 Jan. 1701. He has been confused with the other George Chesley who was baptized 21 May 1721. One George Chesley had fifty acres of land laid out to him at the Indian Graves, 20 Sept. 1721, a part of the grant to the first Philip Chesley in 1652. James Chesley had another part of the same grant laid out to him 2 Dec. 1721. The Rev. Hugh Adams wrote in his manuscript, "A Particular Faith," etc., that a young man named George Chesley was killed and scalped by the Indians 24 May 1724.

13. John Chesley (Thomas³, Thomas², Philip¹), born about 1690, married about 1717, Hannah, daughter of James and Welthen (Thomas) Huckins. He died in 1719, and his widow married Job Runnels. A coroner's jury said that John Chesley "was drowned about half an hour after sunset ye 21st of May 1719." "He went into the water to save two little girls that had been over set in a canoe." Two children:

JOHN, of age in 1739. He and his wife, Sarah, sold land to William Odiorne in 1752. They had son, John, b. in Durham 15 Aug. 1752, who m. Sally ———, b. 5 Sept. 1756, and l. in Nottingham, where they had son, John, b.

5 Sept. 1774, who m. 18 March 1798 Betsey Batchelder. Jonathan Chesley of Nottingham m. 26 Aug. 1798, Thankful, dau. of Lieut. Daniel and Mary (Bartlett) Hoitt and rem. to Rome, Me., where they had a large family.

23. THOMAS m. Deborah ———.

14. Samuel Chesley (Thomas³, Thomas², Philip¹) born about 1691, married Ann, daughter of Joseph Daniel. He chose his uncle, George Chesley, as guardian, 7 June 1708. Probably he was baptized 30 April 1721. Samuel Chesley of Lee made his will, 16 Jan. 1777, naming wife Ann and daughters Susanna and Martha. John Willey and William Glidden, sons-in-law, were executors of his will.

ANN b. 29 Oct. 1723. Not named in will.

SUSANNAH b. 21 Oct. 1725; m. John Willey.

ELIZABETH m. William Glidden, 16 Sept. 1750.

15. George Chesley (George³, Thomas², Philip¹) was baptized as an adult 21 May 1721 with Elizabeth Chesley, who may have been his sister and may have been his wife. He was certainly married before 1718. His uncles and aunts sold to George Chesley, "our loving cousin," 4 Aug. 1721, 100 acres near Beech hill, granted to Philip Chesley, the aged. No further trace of him has been found, and nothing is known about his wife. It is certain that his place was inherited by a son, George.

CLARK

Abraham Clark's land is mentioned in 1680. He lived near the northern boundary of Oyster River Parish. He may have been the Clark of unknown name who was killed in the massacre of 1694. Deliverance Clark, who married Nathaniel Lamos before 1700, was doubtless his daughter, and so, probably, was Mary Clark, who married Bartholomew Stevenson, 10 Oct. 1680. Clark's Plains are on the line of Dover and Madbury southeast of Pudding hill.

Abraham Clark, aged 59 when he made a deposition in 1738, must have been son of the first Abraham. He was surveyor of highways in 1714. He had a wife Anna. They sold land to Remembrance Clark in 1761. Abraham Clark's estate was administered by widow, Anna, who was appointed administratrix 30 June 1762. He was said to be of Barrington at the time of his decease. Three children are recorded, viz., Love b. 30 May 1721, Annah b. 2 July 1723, and Mary b. 1 Dec. 1725.

DANIEL

The surname has been written Daniels by some descendants. Davey Daniel was taxed in 1661 and from 1662 to 1667 he and Philip Crommett were rated together. He is mentioned in 1663 in the settlement of a Scotchman's estate and was fined for quarreling in 1664. He signed the petition of 1668 and was rated at Oyster River in 1675. Widow Naomi Daniel is mentioned repeatedly in 1685. There was no other than Davey whose widow she could have been. In 1685 she was accused of using abusive language about William Durgin, John Pinder and Benjamin Matthews. [See Coll. of N. H. Hist. Society, VIII, 245.]

The following is of interest as bearing upon the witchcraft craze of that time, which little affected the people of New Hampshire:

"To the constable at Oyster River. In his Maj^{ty} Name you are required to apprehend the bodie of Naomi Daniel of Oyster River and to bring her before y^e Counsel now sitting in Portsmouth to answer for her reproachful & slanderous speeches against Benjamin Mathews & others. Hereof fail not and make yo^r return. Dated July 4th 1682. By order R. Chamberlain."

July 5, 1682. "The Deposition of Joseph Grafton aged 18 (28) years of age testifieth & saith that he being at the house of Naomi Daniel 29 of May 1682 or thereabouts I to her did say that I heard that she had lost a cow. Yea, shee said, the Wishes and Divells have bewished my cow into the myer twice. I asked her hoe (who) the s^d wishes were & divels. My sister Matt— And my brother benjamin Mathes Is as bad. i asked her why shee spake Soe against her sister & brother. Hang them wishes & wizards Let them Bring me out If they Dare & further saith not."

July 5, 1682. "The deposition of Remembrance Rand aged 32 years or there about Testifieth and saith that sum time in May last 1682 I being in company with naomy Daniell heard her say that hir sister Mathews was a wizard that hir husband was noe better and further saith that the said naomy said that they towld you that it was I did bewich your child, but it was they that did bewich your child, but they did hit to hid their own Rogry and further saith not." [N. H. Prov. Court Files, VI, 481.]

Thus it appears that Naomi Daniel was sister to the wife of Benjamin Mathes, whose name was Dorothy. They were daughters, probably, of the Rev. Joseph Hull. [See Hull.] The circumstantial evidence is convincing that Davey Daniel left at least two sons:

DAVIS

(Compiled mainly by N. W. Davis, Winchester, Mass.)

The Davis family of Marlborough, Wiltshire, Eng., came originally from Wales and derive their name from David, the patron saint of Wales. Robert Davy is found in Wiltshire as early as 1276 in the Inquisitiones post mortem. Hugh Davyse was living in Marlborough in 1524, as shown by court records, also John Davyse in 1532, and the name became wide-spread in Wiltshire about that time.

The Davises of Marlborough appear to have borne arms as follows, "Gules, a stag trippant or," that is, a golden stag on a red shield, as shown by the will of Joane (Hayles) Davis, widow of Robert of Marlborough, son of Paul, born about 1560, which appears upon its seal. This was the coat of arms of an ancient Welsh tribe. The same coat of arms was used by William Davis of Boston, born about 1615, without doubt son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Henley) Davis of Brinkworth, near Marlborough.

James Davis, the emigrant, was born, according to old Bible records, in Marlborough, Eng., about the year 1584. He was made freeman at Newbury, Mass., 4 March 1634/5. In 1640 he with eleven others cleared the forest at the Indian village of Pentucket and founded the present city of Haverhill, Mass. He lived at the easterly end of the town, near Rocks Bridge. He was a prominent man, serving as selectman and representative to the General Court. He was a Puritan and once accused John Godfrey of witchcraft. His wife, Cicely, was born in Marlborough, Eng., and died in Haverhill, Mass., 28 May 1673. He died 29 Jan. 1679. He left six children, with only one of whom we are concerned in the history of Oyster River Plantation.

Ensign John Davis (James) was born about 1623 in Marlborough. He married, 10 Dec. 1646, Jane, daughter of the Rev. Joseph and Mary (Johnson) Peasley of Haverhill, where he owned land in 1642. In 1650 he was on a committee to lay out a boundary between Haverhill and Salisbury. About 1653 he removed to Oyster River, where he built his garrison house, near Davis Creek, on the north side of the river and near its mouth, on land bought of Valentine Hill, 14 Aug. 1654. He had numerous and large grants of land, was selectman seven times, constable, surveyor of lands, and held other offices. He is called ensign as early as 1662. He died between 1 April 1685 and 25 May 1686, the dates on which his will was made and approved. Children were as follows:

MARY b. 6 Nov. 1647; m. 19 July 1671, Josiah Heath of Haverhill.

3. Moses Davis (John², James¹), born 30 Dec. 1657, married in Haverhill, Mass., 16 Jan. 1681, Reuhamah, daughter of Stephen Dow of Haverhill. He settled at Oyster River as early as 1693, and lived on the Mill Road, west of the present railroad. He was a private, under his brother, then Capt. James Davis, in a scout against the Indians in 1712. He and son, Moses, were slain by Indians near the Mast Road, 10 June 1724. The Rev. Hugh Adams says "Two more men of our Parish were killed by Indians, namely Moses Davis, Sr., one of the most wise and godly of the Brethren in our church and his son, Moses Davis, Jr., being a married man and father of several children."

Thomas Jones Davis has presented to New Hampshire College a tract of eight acres in Lee and Durham, called Davis Park, which he planted to sweet chestnut trees. The park is to be further beautified by the college, with the hope that the students of the same and the pupils in the two nearest public schools may annually have an October outing party in the park, "to the end that out of the day-dreams of these youths and children perhaps once in a generation one shall materialize in the form of a bigger, better, more lasting and far-reaching effort to increase the sum of the world's happiness." The park is a memorial of his parents.

DEMERITT, DEMERITT

The Harleian Manuscripts contain the Visitation of Devonshire, dated 1564, and under the name Knolles of Little Hempston declare that Richard Knolles married Maude, daughter of Baldwin Demeritt, lord of Meryett, and give ten generations of their descendants. Ten generations prior to 1564 take us back to shortly after the Norman conquest of England. The place where some Norman settled, here called Meryett, is now known as Merriott, a parish in the hundred of Crewkerne, western division of Somersetshire, two miles from Crewkerne. It is called repeatedly Meriet in the Domesday Book of William the Conqueror. Nicholas de Meriet and wife, Elizabeth, in 1207, Simon de Meriet and wife, Lucia, in 1262, and Walter de Meriet, in 1256, are named in the State Papers of England. In 1333 another Walter de Meriet was chancellor of the church at St. Peter, Exeter. These names indicate the Norman origin of the family. There can be no doubt that the surname Demeritt is a place name, the first syllable being the French preposition de, which was dropped by some branches of the ancient family, and the surname Marriott, Marret, Meriot, Merritt, etc., was very common in southern England and in New England in the seventeenth century. Capt. Nicholas Merritt was of Salem, Mass., in 1648, called also Nicholas Meriot. Charles Demerit's tax was abated in Boston in 1700, and he is called also Demeret, Demerre and Demerry. John Demeritt, aged 25, gave testimony in Middlesex court in 1657. He came from Barbadoes. Thomas Demeritt of Salem, Mass., master of a ketch, made a deposition, August 1700. It is beyond reasonable doubt that Meriet, or Marriott, in Somersetshire, first gave birth to the De Meritts. Search for a place name in France and the Channel Islands, from which this surname might be derived, has been fruitless. The tradition that Eli Demeritt came from the Isle of Jersey may have some foundation in fact, since then as now people passed easily to and fro between southern England and the Channel Islands. The ways in which Eli Demeritt's name was phonetically spelled in old deeds would suggest that he and others knew the French, or Norman, origin of the surname.* The Meryet, Maryet, Meritt, Mariott, Marriot, Marriott families of England all have the same coat of arms, "Barry of six, or and sa," that is, a shield crossed horizontally by six alternate bars of gold and black. This shows a common origin of the families, and the simplicity of the armorial device is the proof of its antiquity.†

"Eli Demrey" had a grant of forty acres in Dover, 11 April 1694, on the northwest side of James Derry's land. It was laid out the same year to "Eli Demeret." October 11, 1704, Francis Pitman sold to "Elie Marrett" of Dover forty acres "on the northwest side of Logg hill, on the northwest side of the path going to Mad berries." [N. H. Prov. Deeds, XII, 115.]

Dec. 14, 1725, Eli Demiret and wife, Hope, and William Wormwood, all of Dover, sold to Stephen Harding "right to estate of our uncle, John Reynolds, deceased, in Arundel." [See York Deeds, XI, 248.] This shows that he married Hope, or Hopestill, Reynolds, called also Runnels, probably daughter of Job Reynolds of Cape Porpoise, Me., and granddaughter of William Reynolds. [See Runnels family.] The name is sometimes written De Merit in old records. Eli Demeritt died about 1747. The fact that he was married about 1695, before the Reynolds family were driven by the Indians from Maine to New Hampshire, may indicate that Eli Demeritt lived for a while in Arundel before settling in Dover. There is no evidence, as some have supposed, that he belonged to a company of Huguenot refugees.

DENBOW, DENMORE, DINSMORE

Salathiel Denbow, according to a deposition made in 1680, was born in 1642. He was rated at Oyster River in 1666 and 1675. He signed the petition of 1669. He owned land on the road from the Falls to Newmarket, near the Long Marsh. The name is written sometimes Denbow or Denbo, and sometimes Denmor, Denmore and Denmoor. The surname Denbow was not rare in southern England at that time. Some of his descendants write the name Dinsmore, or Dinsmoor. He married a daughter of William Roberts and died before 17 May 1714. Children, so far as known, were:

2. SALATHIEL m. ——— Graves, (2) Rachel Peavey.
3. RICHARD m. 1705, Mary Bunker.
4. PETER.

2. Salathiel Denmore, son of Salathiel Denmore deceased, sold, 17 May 1714, to his loving brother, Richard Denmoor, all right to "place which was my fathers, whereon my father-in-law William Graves did also live." [N. H. Prov. Deeds, XXVII, 543.] He served as a soldier in the French and Indian War and had his skull fractured. [See page 108 of Vol. I.] He married (1) a daughter of William Graves, (2) 19 Dec. 1720, Rachel Peavey, of Newington. The town records say that Salathiel Denbo was "let out" to Samuel Wille, in 1751, for £74.

It was, perhaps, his son, Salathiel Denbow, who with Mary Sawyer, alias Denbo, his wife, sold to Ebenezer Smith, 21 July 1741, one fifth part of lands in Newmarket and Durham that belonged to "our father, Cornelius Drisco, late of Newmarket, deceased," and the same Salathiel Denbow, or Denmore, may have married (2) in Newington, 10 Sept. 1740, Mary Hill, both of Durham.

3. Richard Denbow (Salathiel) married, 1705, Mary Bunker. Both were living in 1754. He had a grant of land, near his father's place in 1713. He sold land to son, Ichabod, in 1757 and to son, Clement, in 1754. Family, partly by conjecture. A note in the Quaker records says that Richard Denbow "appears to have come into membership at his marriage. None of their children were considered as members. He was supported by Friends."

"RELIEF BUNKER, dau. of Mary Denmore, Quaker," bapt.

4. Peter Denbow (Salathiel) was a captive among the Indians, 17 Jan. 1698/9. He sold land to his brother, Richard Denmor, in 1715, and more land to Moses Edgerly in 1737. He was "let out" to James Drisco, in 1751, for £27 for one year. No hints of any family. He was baptized 27 Oct. 1723.

Capt. Elijah Denmore of Lee is mentioned in 1765 and 1775. Elijah Dinsmoor was a Revolutionary pensioner in Conway in 1840 aged 77.

Daniel T. Sargent and Deborah Denbo were published in Durham 15 Oct. 1803.

DERRY

John Derry signed a petition in 1689. He had a grant of thirty acres in 1693, joining to his own land, in what is now Madbury. In 1694 there were granted to John Derry and William Tasker twenty acres of marsh cleared by them, joining to Bellemies Bank River. In the massacre of 1694 most of his children were killed; his house was burned, and he and wife and son, Joseph, were carried into captivity by the Indians, where he and son, Joseph, died. His widow, Deliverance, married Nathaniel Pitman.

James Derry was rated in 1681. He had a grant, 19 March 1793/4, of all his improved land on the west side of Beech Hill, between Oyster River and Newtown. Perhaps he and wife also perished in the massacre of 1694.

April 19, 1722, William Pitman and Joanna his wife sold to John Munsey all right in the estate of James Derry.

July 12, 1735, John Pinder and Elizabeth, his wife, sold to John Jenkins, Jr., all right in the estate of James Derry.

In 1719 Samuel Perkins and John Munsey are called survivors and owners of land granted to James Derry.

DREW

(Compiled mainly by N. W. Davis, Winchester, Mass.)

The Drews of England, Eng., claim descent from Drogo, son of Malger le Pons, who was uncle of William the Conqueror. Their coat of arms is thus described, "Ermine, a lion passant gules," and is one of the most ancient. William Drew, born without doubt in Devonshire, 1627, was rated at Oyster River in 1648. He lived on the south side of the river, at Drew's Point, where on a hilltop may be seen the cellar of the garrison house built by him or by his son, Francis. On the 10 Aug. 1653, there were granted to William Drew sixty acres of upland, on the north side of Bransons Creek, joining to his marsh. This was laid out to his son, Francis, in 1669. The birth dates of William Drew, of his wife, Elizabeth, and of his brother, Thomas, are learned from depositions.

William Drew died in April 1669. His widow Elizabeth, born 1628, daughter of Francis and Thomasine (Channon) Matthews married, 20 July 1671, William Follett. The inventory of Drew's estate shows a house, one cannon, two fishing boats and fishing tackle. His brother, Thomas Drew, born 1632, received the farm at Drew's Point in 1680 from William Follett and wife, Elizabeth, and he was killed by Indians, 18 July 1694. His widow, Mary, who married Richard Elliot of Portsmouth, quitclaimed the estate in favor of John, son of William Drew, who conveyed it to Stephen Jenkins in 1712, and he deeded it to James Langley in 1714.

James Drew married Mary, daughter of John Jones of Portsmouth, and died intestate in 1674. He left children, of whom were James and Nathaniel, who sold land in 1690. Another son was perhaps John Drew, carpenter, of Portsmouth, who about 1720 had worked for the Rev. Hugh Adams and brought suit against him for payment of a debt of £12, the price of work done by said John Drew and his son, John. [See Court Files at Concord.]

The estate of Samuel Drew of Portsmouth was administered in 1669. Another Samuel Drew was surety for Elizabeth, widow of William Follett, in 1690.

Thomas Footman died in 1667. His wife was Catherine Matthews. He desired "my brother Bengemin Mathews and William ffollett to assist my wife." She married (2) as second wife, William Durgin.

William Durgin (William¹) in a deposition made 22 Feb. 1734/5, aged about 63, says that 44 or 45 years ago he lived with "his Uncle William follitt" and raked hay on a certain marsh. [Court Files, No. 23424.]

William Follett married Elizabeth, widow of William Drew. In 1682 he petitioned the Council in behalf of his daughter-in-law (step-daughter), Hannah, widow of Godfrey Brooking. She must have been daughter of Elizabeth Drew, since William

Follett had no children. [N. H. Probate Records, as published, Vol. I, p. 258.]

Oct. 16, 1684, Thomasine Mathews, widow of Francis, out of love and affection to Will Brooking, ye son of Godfrie Brooking, deceased, her well beloved grandchild, conveyed to him marshland on Johnson's Creek. [Landmarks in Ancient Dover, p. 31.]

It follows that Elizabeth, daughter of Francis and Thomasine (Channon) Matthews, married (1) William Drew, (2) William Follett. By first marriage she had a daughter, Hannah, who married Godfrey Brooking. [See Follett.] Thus William Follett was uncle by marriage to William Durgin, son of William.

William Drew's children were:

2. FRANCIS b. 1648; m. Lydia Bickford.
3. JOHN b. 1651; m. Sarah Field, (2) Rebecca Cook.
4. THOMAS m. Mary Bunker.
ELIZABETH m. Thomas Phillips* of Ipswich.
HANNAH m. (1) Godfrey Brooking, (2) Nicholas Follett,
(3) Abraham Heseltine.

2. Francis Drew (William), born 1648, married, about 1672, Lydia Bickford, as a court record states. She was, doubtless, daughter of John and Temperance. At the massacre of 1694 Francis Drew was slain and his wife was captured and, on account of feebleness, was left to die in the woods. His brother, John, was appointed administrator of Francis' estate, 16 Nov. 1694. The probate records declare that "whereas Thomas Drew, surviving son and eldest unto the aforesaid Francis deceased, is now returned out of the hands of the Indian enemy and claims administration upon his father's estate," his claim was granted, 16 Nov. 1696. Francis Drew's children were:

5. THOMAS b. abt. 1672; m. Tamsen ———.
6. JOHN m. ———.
BENJAMIN b. 1685; captured and killed by Indians, 1694.
MARY shown in adm. papers; m. Samuel Green of Stratham.
ELIZABETH m. Thomas Footman.

3. Sergt. John Drew (William¹), born 1651, settled, about 1675, on the west side of Dover Neck, where he engaged in the trade of Cooper. June 25, 1680, he purchased of William Follett,

* May 22, 1734, Thomas Phillips of Ipswich, Mass., and Elizabeth, daughter of William Drew, late of Dover, sold to Meshech Drew all right in estate of our parent William Drew. [N. H. Prov. Deeds, XX1, 400.]

his mother's second husband, lot No. 15 of the Back River grants, which was originally granted in 1642 to Samuel Haynes. Here he erected a dwelling. May 11, 1696, he bought of William Brackstone lot 14, of which Edward Starbuck was the original grantee, and 16 Aug. 1697, he acquired a further lot of twenty acres at the "Dead Pines," which he purchased of Zachariah Pitman. May 6, 1698, he bought of Thomas Austin twenty acres adjoining to the rear of lot 14, and on 6 June of the same year secured the Robert Huckins lot, No. 16. The William Pomfret lot, No. 17, was purchased by him, 5 Feb. 1702, and on 5 June 1705 he bought of Richard and Sarah Paine of Boston lot No. 18, which was originally granted to Thomas Layton. Dec. 6, 1700, he purchased of Joshua Wingate twenty acres, bought twenty acres of Israel Hodgdon, 16 June 1702, and secured three quarters of an acre more of Hodgdon, adjoining lot 18, on 1 March 1706, which together with the Austin lot at the rear of No. 14 and one half an acre of salt marsh purchased of William Brookins, one half of a twenty acre lot purchased of John Derry, the twenty acre lot at the "Dead Pines," one half of his commonage in the Dry Pines and one half of a twenty acre lot at Moharimet's hill in Madbury he deeded to his then only son, Francis Drew, April 9, 1712, the first four lots lying on the south side of the way which led from his house to the Queen's Road. It has been thought by many that John Drew was the builder of the old garrison now standing in Spruce Lane, which is commonly known as the Drew garrison, but original deeds which have recently come to light, as well as the deed above cited, show that his house stood considerably north of the garrison, and in fact not far from his own family burial ground, which can still be seen. The garrison took its present name from Joseph Drew, the great grandson of John, and came into his possession through the inheritance of his wife. It was apparently owned by William Dam and descended through the latter's daughter, Leah, wife of Samuel Hayes, to Leah Nute, granddaughter of Leah Hayes, who married Joseph Drew. A careful perusal of a surveyor's plan will show that the garrison stands at the rear of lot 13, which was owned by William Dam, and in fact the Dam burial ground is on this lot between the garrison and the river, whereas the Drew burial ground is considerably farther north, where the inscription on Sergt. John Drew's headstone may be read even now.

James Tuttle quitclaimed his interest in this garrison to Joseph Drew in 1786. James Tuttle had no Drew ancestry. His wife was daughter of Jacob and Martha (Dam) Allen. Jacob and Martha Allen lived in one end of William Dam's garrison in 1701.

Samuel Hayes owned and lived in the garrison before Joseph Drew. Samuel Hayes married Leah, daughter of William Dam. Joseph Drew married Leah Nute, granddaughter of Samuel Hayes.

The garrison, then, was originally owned by William Dam, and Provincial Papers say that soliders were stationed here from 7 Jan. 1695 to 7 Jan. 1696.

John Drew was a selectman of Dover in 1701 and was a sergeant in the militia. He married (1) about 1675 Sarah, daughter of Darby Field. He married (2) 31 March 1720, Rebecca Cook, although they had children before that date and there was trouble in court about it. He died at Back River, Dover, 23 Oct. 1723, aged 73. His widow, Rebecca, married, 1724, Samuel Starbird of Dover, by whom she had Elizabeth born 4 July 1725, and Samuel born May 1727. John Drew's will is dated 31 Jan. 1721 and was probated 4 Dec. 1723. There was a Lydia Drew mentioned in Canada in 1710, still a captive. Thomas Drew, then, married Mary Bunker, doubtless daughter of James. He lived at Back River, Dover, and had a house on the "Plains" recently built in 1688.

THIRD GENERATION

5. Thomas Drew (Francis², William¹), born about 1672, married Tamsen ———. He and wife were captured by Indians 1694. He was taken to Canada and his wife to Norridgewock, Me. Both returned before 1698. They lived on the shore of Little Bay, north of Branson's Creek, where they are said to have had fourteen children. They were admitted to church 3 March 1727. [See her deposition concerning her captivity.] She died at the age of 89. He died shortly after, at the age of 90. The place where they lived is now known as the Richard Kent place, and the old burial ground may be seen, with a few fallen headstones. The following children are known:

Infant, killed by Indians while his mother was in captivity.

14. JOSEPH b. 1704; m. Elizabeth Adams.

15. FRANCIS bapt. 5 April 1727; m. Phebe Adams.

16. THOMAS bapt. 5 April 1727; m. Judith ——— (?).

17. ELIJAH bapt. 5 April 1727.

TAMSEN bapt. 5 April 1727; m. (1) Joseph Drew, (2) Paul Hayes.

MARTHA bapt. 5 April 1727; had land in Rochester, 1744.

ABIGAIL bapt. 5 April 1727; had land in Rochester, 1744.

MARY bapt. 5 April 1727; had land in Rochester, 1744.

JOHN bapt. 6 Aug. 1727; had deed from his father in 1744.

RUTH bapt. 6 Aug. 1727.

6. John Drew (Francis², William¹) escaped through a window at the time of the massacre, 1694, and probably was killed by Indians, 27 April 1706, as says Pike's Journal. Dec. 29, 1727, Joseph Wheeler and Mary, his wife, Zachariah Edgerly and Joanna, his wife, deeded to Francis Mathes thirty acres, "granted to our father John Drew of Oyster River deceased, which grant was granted to him the 23 of June 1701." [N. H. Prov. Deeds, XXIV, 452.] Notice that this John Drew was of Oyster River, and John Drew, Sr., never lived at Oyster River. Again, 13 July 1747 John Drew, Joseph Drew, Joseph Wheeler and wife, Mary, Zachariah Edgerly and wife, Joanna, divide land in Durham which Thomas Drew, son of Francis, purchased of Margaret Squire in 1701. [N. H. Prov. Deeds, XXXIII, 395.] It is probable that John Drew married and that his wife was slain at the same time he was, and that they had two daughters:

MARY m. Joseph Wheeler, 11 Feb. 1724/5.

JOANNA m. Zachariah Edgerly, 11 May 1727.

7. John Drew (John², William¹), born about 1680 married, 24 May 1705, Elizabeth, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth (Tucker) Hopley of Portsmouth. He died at Back River, Dover, in 1711. His widow married before 1734 ——— Pinkham.

18. JOHN b. 17 Oct. 1707; m. Abigail Wingate.

ELIZABETH b. 2 Oct. 1709; m. ——— Yeaton, father of Hopley Yeaton (?).

19. FRANCIS b. 24 Jan. 1712; m. Mary Hicks.

8. Francis Drew (John², William¹), born about 1682, married, 3 June 1713, Ann Wingate, daughter of Capt. John and Ann, born in Dover 2 Feb. 1694. He lived near the old garrison at Back River, where he died 10 May 1717. His widow married, 1 Jan. 1719, Daniel Titcomb of Dover, by whom she had Ann, Enoch, John, Abigail, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Sarah and Mary Titcomb. She died in 1787. Her will, 1766, may be seen in Strafford County Probate Records, Vol. II, p. 317. Francis Drew had only one child,

20. JOSEPH b. 8 April 1717; m. Tamsen Drew.

9. Lemuel Drew (John², William¹), born 26 May 1723, married, about 1745, Anna Bunker, daughter of Joseph and Ann (Giles) Bunker. He died on his farm at Back River, 25 Sept. 1759. His widow married Joseph Stevenson of Dover, by whom she had children, Abigail who m. ——— Gillette, Lemuel who m. ——— Tibbetts, Margaret who m. Benjamin Wigin, and Thomas who m. Sarah Johnson. Lemuel Drew was a soldier in King George's War and served as pilot to the volunteers under Capt. Ichabod Tibbetts, entering service 31 March 1744. It is stoutly claimed by descendants of Levi Drew of Holderness that Lemuel Drew had son, Levi, born 1743, who married Mary Baker, and another son, Moses of Holderness. If this be true, Lemuel Drew probably had a first wife, whose name has not been learned. I have found no documentary proof of this. Lemuel's family as here given is found in an old family Bible.

21. JEDIDIAH b. 4 Nov. 1748; m. Abigail ———.

JONATHAN b. 20 March 1750; m. Olive, dau. of Samuel and Olive (Kingman) Winkley; l. in Barrington.

10. Thomas Drew (Thomas², William¹), born April 1689, married Tamsen, daughter of Joseph and Tamsen (Meserve) Ham who was born 19 July 1698. He received the homestead from his father in 1744. She was a widow in 1758 and married (2) Thomas Spinney of Kittery. Her death was published in a Portsmouth paper, 21 May 1799, "aged 90." When she was a girl, she was held captive several years by the Indians. The following were probably children of Thomas Drew:

THOMAS, JR. m. Sarah, a granddaughter of Joseph and Tamsen (Meserve) Ham, as a deed shows. The will of Thomas Drew of Madbury was probated in 1783, naming wife Sarah, son William, daughter Betty, wife of Richard Hussey, and daughters, Patience and Hannah.

He had a daughter, Love Drew, who married Elijah Tibbetts, 23 Dec. 1738. Benjamin Drew of Durham and wife, Elizabeth, sold land to Moses Davis in 1765. Widow Elizabeth Drew was taxed in Durham in 1783 and 1786. [See page 117.]

DUNN

Hugh Dunn had a grant before 1663 and had built a house near Lamprey River. Soon after he sold out and removed to Piscataway, N. J., with a small colony from the Pascataqua that settled there. [For descendants see N. H. Gen. Record, Vol. I. pp. 145-150.]

Nicholas Dunn was taxed at Oyster River in 1682. He probably married Elizabeth, daughter of William Roberts. He was a tailor by trade. He died before 18 Oct. 1699, when his widow, Elizabeth, conveyed to Edward Wakeham land bought of Francis Pitman. [See Roberts.] They had a son, Nicholas, and probably daughter, Elizabeth, who, as a maiden, aged 39, became the second wife of James Davis, aged 41, Oct. 4, 1728, as the Rev. Hugh Adams records.

Nicholas Dunn (Nicholas) married Deborah Grindall, or Grindle, in Boston, 6 June 1710 and had children recorded there. Later he lived in Kittery, Me. Deborah Dunn, doubtless his wife, was admitted to church at Oyster River by letter from the pastor of the New North Church in Boston, 10 Jan. 1719/20. It is extremely probable that this family removed to Falmouth, now Portland, Me., and that the Dunn families of Portland, Poland, and Waterville, Me., are descended from Nicholas Dunn of Oyster River. Children, so far as known, were:

ANNA b. in Boston 26 Dec. 1713; m. March 1732, John Deering of Kittery, (2) Dea. James Milk of Portland, Me.

Samuel Dunn was pub. to Sarah Skillings 19 July 1757, and Nathaniel Dunn was pub. to Mary Dyer 7 July 1759, in Portland.

DURGIN

William Durgin, born in 1648, as a deposition shows, was at Oyster River as early as 1661 and was taxed there in 1664. He lived on the north shore of Great Bay, next west of Crommett's Creek. The name of his first wife is not known. He married (2) 25 June 1672, Katherine, widow of Thomas Footman and daughter of Francis Matthews. April 25, 1703, William Durgin was cited to court to deliver to his mother-in-law (step-mother) Katherine, certain property now in his hands belonging to his late father. The same day James Durgin was required to give to Thomas Footman certain articles that belonged to his father. June 25, 1675, William Durgin, having married the relict of Thomas Footman, petitioned court to divide the property of said relict, so that he be paid for the support of her children under age, which was done. His widow, Katherine, was appointed administratrix on his estate, 30 Nov. 1703. Two sons by first marriage and one by second are known:

Nathan and Silas are here given on the authority of Mrs. Zebulon Durgin of Durham, in a statement made over sixty years ago. March 14, 1742/3, John Durgin, Joseph Durgin, Benjamin Durgin, Joshua Durgin and Elizabeth Durgin, spinster, of Durham, sold to Josiah Durgin all their right in the homestead of their father, William Durgin, of Durham. [N. H. Prov. Deeds, XXXIV, 319.] William Durgin, aged about 63, deposed, 22 Feb. 1734, that about 45 years ago he "lived with his Uncle William Follett" and worked in his employ. He was born about 1678, as a deposition says, and died 9 June 1735, aged 60, as family records say. He lived and died in Newmarket. June 17, 1766, Francis Durgin and William Durgin confirm to John Turner the sale of 32 acres in Epping, part of the estate of their father, Francis Durgin, of Newmarket, deceased. DULEY

Philip Duley appears as a seaman in the service of Capt. John Cutts of Portsmouth, in 1679. He signed a petition in 1689. He had a grant of twenty acres in Dover, 19 March 1693/4. It adjoined to land he had improved, on the west side of the brook that goeth to Johnson's Creek. He married, about 1682, Grace Roberts, daughter of William and Ann, and after his decease she married Timothy Moses. Feb. 14, 1721/2,

Timothy Moses of Dover and wife, Grace, sold to Samuel Merrey of Oyster River land "formerly fenced and improved by Philip Duley late deceased of said Dover." Feb. 18, 1726/7, Timothy Moses and wife, Grace, sold to Joseph Jenkins land in Dover granted to "our father William Roberts."

Aug. 15, 1728, Hannah Duley sold to Timothy Moses right in estate of Philip Duley, father of said Hannah, who about this time built for herself a house in Portsmouth.

Oct. 8, 1729/30, William Duley of Dover sold to Timothy Moses right in estate of Philip Duley, father of said William. This William Duley was a soldier in Col. Thomas Westbrook's force in 1722, and in 1724/5, notwithstanding he had been ordered to be publicly whipped with fifteen stripes "well laid on his naked back," for desertion, 9 Oct. 1718. He was one of those who organized the first church in Scarborough, Me., in 1728, where he had a grant of land in 1721. He died in Durham about 1748.

It was, doubtless, Philip Duley, son of Philip, that was admitted to the church at Oyster River, 3 Feb. 1723. Thomas Harris of Dover sold to Philip Duley of the same town, 28 Sept. 1719, one hundred acres at Black Point, Scarborough. [See York Deeds, X, 63.] Philip Duley was proprietors' clerk in Scarborough in 1720. Henry Libby, aged 78, deposed, 12 Aug. 1726, that Joseph Whineck was killed and his daughter with him by the Indians and was buried on his own land, where Philip Duley and Thomas Hares (Harris') wife were buried. [See York Deeds, XII, Part I, p. 61.] This Thomas Harris had married at Oyster River, 25 July 1717, Sarah Dudley, as the record reads, which is perhaps a clerical error for Duley, since no such person appears in the Dudley Genealogy.

Elijah Duley was baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, 10 Feb. 1716/7. Mary Duley, daughter of Philip, was baptized 28 July 1717.

Samuel Duley of Newmarket married Susanna, daughter of John and Rebecca Perkins, before 1745.

DURRELL

Tradition says that Philip Durrell came from the Island of Guernsey. He had a grant of fifty acres in Exeter, 21 Feb. 1697/8, which he conveyed to his son, Joseph, 20 Dec. 1738, and Joseph sold it to Thomas Young, 24 Jan. 1740/1. In this deed he is called Philip Duda of Arundel. The grant was "near Piscassic at Lamperel River." Nov. 1, 1700, Philip Deudy of Exeter, planter, for ten pounds, sold to William Ardell a "certain tract of land lying and being in Exeter" on the south side of the mast way, near Mr. Ardell's saw mill, "near the house that was formerly Teague Daniells." At this time he removed to Arundel, now Kennebunkport, Me. Aug 13, 1703 his family were carried off by Indians and he went back to Exeter. His wife and his infant son were allowed to come back from Pi-quawket (Fryeburg, Me.) to Saco fort, an Indian carrying the infant. Philip Durrell, or Duda, was a soldier in a garrison at Exeter, 26 Oct. 1696. He was one of a scouting party for two days under Capt. Nicholas Gilman of Exeter, July 5, 1710. He returned to Kennebunkport in 1714 and in 1723 had the same lot laid out to him that he was in possession of when his family were carried into captivity by the Indians. His family were again captured in 1726, and his wife was killed. He bought 100 acres in Arundel in 1727 and sold the same to his son, Benjamin, in 1732. He is called in old records Duda, Dudey, Doody, Deudy and Durrell. The last seems to have been the original surname, to which his descendants in Maine adhered, and to which the descendants of his son, Joseph, in Durham and vicinity have returned. Children were as follows:

2. JOSEPH m. Rebecca Adams.
 PHILIP m. Keziah Wakefield, 27 June 1724.
 BENJAMIN m. Judith Perkins.
 JOHN m. Widow Lydia Jellison.
 RACHEL captured and married in Canada.
 SUSAN captured and married in Canada.

He was the first to ascend Mount Washington.

The following depositions throw some light on his family. June 28, 1669, Joseph Smith, aged 28, "saith that being at William Pitmans house about the latter end of this last spring Goodman Williams came in & Inquired of the s^d Pitman & his wife what reports those were they had Raysed of him concerning his children, unto whom the s^d Pitman Replied that hee had heard of none & so also said his wife; then presently the s^d goodman Williams called in his daughter-in-law (step-daughter) Sara & told that both the s^d Pitman and his wife did deny that they ever heard any such reports as she had informed her father & mother."

The same day Sara ffield, aged about 18, deposed "that Goody Pitman told her that her father-in-law (step-father) had reported at Goodman Godders (Goddard's house & at William Follets house that his wifes children would undoe him & bring him to beggary." [N. H. Court Files.]

GILES

Matthew Giles was one of the earliest settlers at Oyster River. "Giles old field" is repeatedly mentioned in deeds. It lay between two creeks, where later Edward Wakeham lived, and was the farm next above that of Francis Matthews, on the south side of the river. In 1648 Matthew Giles paid the largest tax in the plantation. He also owned land on Smuttynose Island, which he sold 27 June 1659. John Redman, Sr., of Hampton, and Richard Knight of Boston, weaver, conveyed, 30 Oct. 1668, to Peter Lewis house, stage, and appurtenances on Smuttynose Island, formerly owned by Matthew Giles of Oyster River. [See York Deeds, Vol. II.]

The court ordered, 2:8:1644, that Elizabeth Giles, wife of Matthew, should be whipped or redeemed with a fine of twenty shillings for "revyling words" against some of the members of the church. June 30, 1657, she was presented at court for calling John Alt, constable, "Constable Rogie" and was admonished, paying fees of two shillings, sixpence.

Matthew Giles died 21 Jan. 1666/7. Matthew Williams administered his estate and, after debts were paid, the remainder was equally divided between Matthew Williams and Richard Knight. Perhaps they had married daughters of Giles.

Matthew Giles signed a petition from the Isles of Shoals in 1653, that the isles be made a township. He and John Bickford and William Drew and, doubtless, many others at Oyster River were principally engaged in fishing. At that time all the streams above Portsmouth were well stocked with salmon and sturgeon.

No connection has been discovered between this family and that of Mark Giles of Dover proper.

GODDARD

John Goddard, born about 1608, as a deposition shows, was one of Capt. John Mason's colonists, who came over in the Pied Cow, arriving at Newichawannock, or South Berwick, Me., 13 July 1634, where he aided in erecting a saw-mill and grist-mill. Sept. 21, 1647, he bought of Joseph Miller* land and build-ings in Dover, on Goddard's Creek, near the shore of Great Bay. Dea. W. S. Meserve and I visited the spot in April, 1913 and it seems plain that Goddard's house must have stood about where a summer cottage does now on a little hill, at the extreme point of land, on the south side of the creek. The landing must have been near by, to which a road was laid out in early times. [See chapter on Roads.] His house was a garrison. Goddard's Neck of land is mentioned in 1657, in laying out the boundaries of Dover and Exeter.

* He removed to Cambridge, Mass. He is called also Joseph Millard and was probably one of the ancestors of President Millard Fillmore.

John Goddard was constable for Dover in 1655. He was made freeman of Dover in 1653. He owned a share in Piscassic falls with timber accommodations, which he sold in 1659. He died 12 Nov. 1666. The verdict of the coroner's jury concerning the "untimely death of John Goddard" was put on file, 25 June 1667. His widow, Welthea, or Welthen, born about 1621, married (2) John Symonds. She was living, non compos mentis, in 1705. John Goddard was a carpenter by trade. He was once fined for being absent from meeting four days and "twice at the Quakers," the fine being forty shillings. We are led to think that courts were almost as anxious then as they are now to collect fines and fees. Fancy John Goddard rowing at low tide the whole length of Great Bay and Little Bay and up Oyster River half way to the Falls to get to meeting. The division of his estate in 1670 shows the following children, and since the male lines of descent speedily ceased, the Goddards of Maine who claim descent from him will have to look to Massachusetts for their ancestor.

HILL

John Hill of Oyster River made a deposition in 1659, aged 35 years. He was first taxed in 1649. In my Old Kittery and Her Families it is said that he was taxed in 1639, a typographical error, copied from Memoranda of Ancient Dover. This later date does not support the theory that he was son of John Hill of Plymouth and Boston, who died in 1647. It is thought that John Hill of Oyster River married in Boston, 15 Jan. 1656, Elizabeth Strong. It is certain that he had wife, Elizabeth. He was not brother to Valentine Hill, as some have supposed, since the latter had a brother, John, in London. Since John Hill was living at Oyster River eight years before his marriage to Elizabeth Strong, it is supposable that she may have been his second wife, and that he may have been father of the William Hill, who was born in 1646, but there is no proof of this made known. John Hill's son, Joseph, bought his father's farm at the Point in 1685 and sold it to John Smart, from whom it passed to John Ambler. He was grand juryman in 1668 and 1671 and is mentioned as roughly treating the quakeress disturbers of public worship in 1661. [For many descendants see Old Kittery and Her Families, pp. 514-527.]

JOSEPH b. 1657; m. (1) Catherine Knight, (2) Susanna Beedle.

ELIZABETH m. John Avery of Stratham, as a deed shows.

William Hill, born 1646, was taxed at Oyster River in 1675 and 1682. Zachariah Pitman, in 1696, testified that he had had some corn of "poor William Hill." He married Hannah, daughter of William and Ann Roberts, and his widow married (2) 22 May 1694, John Cox. [See Roberts.]

2. William Hill, son of the above, born 1669, had wife Judith, who was admitted to church at Oyster River, 7 April 1723, having been baptized 27 July 1718. He was baptized as William Hill, Sr., 8 Nov. 1722. He was surveyor in 1718 and assisted in the survey of a road to Lake Winnipiseogee in 1722. He sold

Thomas Payne was born in Gorham, Me., and married (1) Lydia Blake. He died in Calais 21 Dec. 1869, aged 75 years 7 months. Abigail Brown was a native of Dufferin, New Brunswick. The children of Socrates Hill, who died 20 June 1862 at Manitowoc, Wis., were as follows:

His will, 9 Jan. 1719-2 March 1719, names wife, Welthen, the following children, and brother-in-law, James Bunker. He was selectman, assessor and constable. Had a mill on Huckins brook, that empties into the head of Beard's Creek. He probably rebuilt the garrison house near the site of the former one. He administered his grandfather's estate in 1705.

HULL

Thomas Hull married Joanna Peson, 11 Jan. 1572, at Crewkerne, Somersetshire, England. Their son, Rev. Joseph Hull, was born in 1594 and graduated at Saint Mary Hall, Oxford, in 1614. He was teacher, curate and minister at Colyton, Devonshire, rector at Northleigh, diocese of Exeter, 1621-22, also of Crewkerne. He sailed from Weymouth, England, 25 March 1635, with a company of one hundred and six persons. He was then forty years old and had wife, Agnes, aged 25, evidently his second wife, and children, Joane aged 15, Joseph aged 13, Tristram aged 11, Temperance aged 9, Elizabeth aged 7, Grissell aged 5, and Dorothy aged 3. He lived successively in Weymouth, Hingham, Barnstable, and Yarmouth, Mass., and in York, Me. He was commissioner and deputy for Hingham in 1638. He was at York, 1642-45. Other children were born after his coming to New England. He returned to England in 1645 and for a time was rector at St. Buryan, Cornwall. He was serving as minister at Oyster River in 1662, as shown incidentally in a history of the Friends, some of whom troubled him. He went to the Isles of Shoals and died there 18 Nov. 1665. His widow, Agnes, administered his estate. Her account says that "the Isle owed him for his ministry £20." The total value of his estate was £62-5-5, of which £10 were for books.

The following deposition sheds some light on the movements of the family. Dec. 28, 1669, John Bickford, aged about 60, and John Simmins (Symonds) aged about 52, deposed that "about four and twenty years agoe or there about naomy hulls father and mother they went for England: and left theyer Children to the wid wilderness: and Left them very young and wear not tutred (tutored) as they ought to have been." [N. H. Court Files, Vol. I, p. 325.]

Rev. Joseph Hull's daughter, Naomi, witnessed a deed 17 April 1661. She was then a servant in the family of Samuel Symonds of Ipswich, Mass., and 15 June 1661, she made a deposition. She was then aged twenty years and upward. [Ipswich Court Files, Vol. II.]

Naomi Hull was before court for misdemeanor in 1667, called then by clerical error Amy Hull. She was sheltered in the time of her sore distress by William Williams, who was next neighbor to Rev. Joseph Hull, when he was minister at Oyster River a few years before. On the 17th of 7th month 1668 it was ordered in Dover town meeting that the "Constable take of William Williams sinyer by way of distress the som of nineteen shillings for a fine for a breach of a Town order for entertaining Naomie Hull." John

Church of Dover was granted sixty acres on condition that he take "Neamys child" and keep her till she be twenty years old, and Peter Coffin had another grant "in consideration of what charge I have been out unto John Church concerning the child of Naomi Hull, as by the record bearing date y^e fifth of March in y^e year 1667." [Dover Town Records.]

John Church was captured by Indians in the Dover massacre of 1689, and he was killed and scalped, 7 May 1696, at Cochecho. Among the pupils registered at Quebec was Nimbé Il, whom Miss Mary P. Thompson thought to be Naomi Hill. Is it not more probable that this was Naomi Hull, the "Neamys child," brought up in the family of John Church, named for her mother, and captured with him in 1689?

The records make no further mention of Naomi Hull. Some years later the following order was given: "To the Constable at Oyster River. In his Maj^{ty} Name you are required to apprehend the body of Naomi Daniel of Oyster River and to bring her before y^e Counsel now sitting in Portsmouth to answer for her reporachful & slanderous speeches against Benjamin Mathews & others. Hereof fail not and make yo^r Return. Dated July 4th 1682. By order, R. Chamberlain."

The nature of the charge against Naomi Daniel is shown by the following depositions that appear as evidence in the case:

July 5, 1682. "the Deposition of Joseph Grafton, aged 18 (or 28) years of age testifieth & saith that he being at the house of Naomi Daniel 29 of May 1682 or thereabouts I to her did say that I heard that she had lost a cow. Yea, shee said, the Wishes and Divells have bewished my cow into the myer twice. I asked her hoe [who] the s^d wishes were & divels. My sister Math— and my brother benjamin Mathes is as bad. i asked her why shee spake Soe against her sister & brother. Hang them wishes & wizards Let them Bring me out If they Dare & further saith Not."

July 5, 1682. "The deposition of Remembrance Rand aged 32 years or there about Testifieth and saith that sum time in May last 1682 I being in company with naomy Daniell heard her say that hir sister Mathews was a wizard that hir husband was noe better and further saith that the said naomy said that they towld you that it was I did bewich your child, but it was they that did bewich your child, but they did hit to hid their own Rogry and further saith not." [N. H. Court Files, VI, 481.]

It thus appears that Naomi Daniel was sister to the wife of Benjamin Mathews, whose name was Dorothy, as is shown by other evidence. Naomi is an unusual name, not found among all the early residents of Dover, save in the names Naomi Hull and Naomi Daniel. Are they not the same person? There is reason to think that Benjamin Matthews married Dorothy, widow of Oliver Kent. How did John Bickford know so much about the Hull family in 1645? and why was he called upon to state extenuating circumstances in favor of Naomi Hull? The name of John Bickford's wife was Temperance. Now the Rev. Joseph Hull had daughters, Temperance, Dorothy and Naomi, who, heretofore, have never been accounted for. It is believed that they married three men at Oyster River, where their father once preached and where their brothers, Hopewell and Benjamin, married.

The Old Northwest Genealogical Magazine for 1910 has a long account of the Hull family, but it does not tell what became of these three sisters, nor does it mention Dodavah Hull of York. The family, then, of Rev. Joseph Hull was probably as follows:

JOANE b. 1620; m. (1) 28 Nov. 1639 John Bursley, (2) Dolor Davis; d. after 1683.

JOSEPH b. 1622; l. in 1635.

DOROTHY b. 1632; m. (1) Oliver Kent, (2) Benjamin Matthews.

HOPEWELL b. abt. 1636; m. Mary, dau. of John Martin of O. R. and rem. to New Jersey. John Martin m. Esther, dau. of Thomas Roberts of Dover Neck.

SAMUEL m. 1677, Mary Manning.

DODAVAH m. Mary Seward of Portsmouth.

SARAH d. in 1647.

Benjamin Hull (Rev. Joseph) was rated at Oyster River in 1659 and 1661. He had a grant of 100 acres, 5th of 8th month, 1659, "adjacent to the bounds of Puskesecke Mill on the south west sid of Lamperell River fall," laid out 12:11:1660, "beginning at a marked tree in the town bounds by the Indian graves that are thear," 120 rods on Lambril River, "to the town bounds next Exeter side near the graves again." Dec. 12, 1678, he conveyed to John Rand 120 acres in Dover, bounded northeast by "Lambriell River" and southwest by the Dover line. Rand conveyed this to Robert Wadleigh, 26 Aug. 1679, "commonly called by ye name of Benjamin Hulls meadow." Later it was owned by John Frost, and later still by Thomas Tash.

"Dodiver Hull" had a grant of fifteen acres in York, 12 Sept. 1667, "on y^e new mill creek." Oct. 25, 1713, Widow Mary Blagdon, Hannah Blagdon, Nicholas Follet and Mary, his wife, all of Portsmouth, conveyed to Lewis Bane of York fifteen acres in York, "lying in y^e new mill creek that Henry Sayward's mill stood on." [See York Deeds, VIII, 15.] This is the above grant to Dodavah Hull and shows that the grantors were his heirs. June 5, 1682, administration on the estate of Dodavah Hull was granted to his widow, Mary Hull.

Dodavah Hull married Mary Seward of Portsmouth, daughter of Richard Seward and granddaughter of Richard Seward. She married (2) Dr. Samuel Blagdon before 1688. Her tombstone in the Point of Graves cemetery, Portsmouth, says, "Here Lyes the body of Mrs. Mary Blagdon, wife of Doc^r Samuel Blagdon, aged 75 years. Died Dec. ye 11th 1735." She had by Dodavah Hull a daughter, Mary, who married, 12 Sept. 1700, Nicholas Follett. By second husband she had a daughter, Hannah, born 1688, unmarried in 1737. [N. H. Prov. Deeds, IV, 28a, and N. H. Probate Records, XV, 469.]

He was accepted as an inhabitant of the town, 10th of 11th month, 1658. He had wife, Jane, in 1663 and wife, Ann, in 1667. KENT

Oliver Kent was taxed at Oyster River in 1648 and bought the estate of George Webb in 1651. He had a grant in 1656. There were laid out to him, 3:2:1658, seventy acres, which have ever since remained in the possession of the Kent family. He died intestate and his widow, Dorothy, was appointed to administer his estate, together with John Bickford, 28 June 1670.
 The reason of his appointment may be that he was her brother-in-law. [See Hull family.] Joseph Kent, born 1660, deposed in 1705 that he did live with Benjamin Mathes thirty-five years past, that is, when he was ten years old. This was probably because Widow Dorothy Kent had become Dorothy Mathes, wife of Benjamin. She was probably daughter of the Rev. Joseph Hull.

KINCAID

David Kincaid, Scotchman, came to Boston from Cambridge, 29 Dec. 1684; entertained by Widow Neale, to draw beer. [See report of Record Commissioners of Boston, Vol. X, p. 60.]

On 2 Jan. 1684, Thomas Dewer (Scotchman) became surety to the town of Boston for David Kinked and his family. [Id., p. 76.]

David Kincaid was a member of the Scotch Charitable Society in Boston, in 1684.

David Kincaid settled at Oyster River. He was four months in military service in 1696. He married (2) Anne, widow of Stephen Jenkins, who was baptized 10 Feb. 1722/3 as widow of David Kincaid, deceased the foregoing week. She married (3) Thomas Potts. The place where Kincaid lived, near the Woodman Garrison, is still known as "Kinket's field." The Kincaid homestead now has upon it two college dormitories, one store, six or seven residences, a water supply system and a new street. It is crossed by the Boston and Maine Railroad. Kincaid's brook flows from the college reservoir to tide water. In the deed of forty acres, given by his widow, Ann, to Robert Thompson, in 1723, a place in Lee is called "Camsoe," doubtless a corruption of the word Campsie, the name of a parish in the county of Stirling, Scotland, containing a village called Kincaidfield. It is not far from Glasgow. The place in Lee was named for the place well known and loved in Scotland. The will of David Kincaid, 23 June 1719—6 March 1722/3, names wife, Anne, son, Naphtali, and daughters, Hannah Hay and Sarah Kincaid.

Hannah Hay was admitted to church, 1 Sept. 1723, and had children, Samuel and Hannah Hay, baptized the same day.

Naphtali, son of David Kincaid, married Christian Rand, 7 Dec. 1717. He was baptized 31 Nov. 1716/7 and she 7 Nov. 1725. He was of Sheepscot, Me., 20 Nov. 1740, when he sold to Samuel Lovell land in Sheepscoot which he bought in 1735, as is recorded in York Deeds. Widow Christian Kincaid of Sheepscoot, 15 Sept. 1749, sold to John Woodman her right of dower in land in Durham. David Kincaid, who served in the Louisburg expedition, was doubtless son of Naphtali Kincaid.

There was a Samuel Kincaid in Jefferson, Lincoln County, Me., in the year 1800.

John Chevalier is said to have been a Huguenot refugee and to have changed his French surname to its equivalent, Knight. He was on the Portsmouth rate list for 1681. He married, 29 March 1684, Bridget, daughter of Richard Sloper, who married Mary, daughter of Henry and Rebecca (Gibbons) Sherburne. He bought various pieces of land at Newington, 1702-07, of Benjamin Bickford, John Downing and Zachariah Trickey, thus getting ownership of the ferry to Hilton's Point and to Kittery. He was buried at Pine Point, overlooking the Pascataqua, and his tombstone declares that he was born 30 Aug. 1659 and died 11 May 1721. His will, 29 Nov. 1720, names wife, Bridget, sons, John, Temple, and William, who married, 29 Nov. 1722, Deborah Penhallow; daughter, Elizabeth, who married (1) 12 Sept. 1706, John Janvrin of the Island of Jersey and, (2) 10 Oct. 1720, the Rev. Joseph Adams of Newington, daughter Mary Knight. Bridget Knight's estate was administered by her son, Capt. John Knight, in 1740.

Capt. John Knight, son of the above, married Elizabeth ———. He is called captain in 1723 and served as moderator and selectman several times and representative. His will, 8 Nov. 1765-29

Jan. 1766, names wife, Elizabeth, and most of the following children:

William Pitman, in his will, 1682, appointed Edward Leathers overseer of his wife and children. He signed a petition in 1695 and was living as Edward Lethers, Sr., in 1716. He was heir of William Beard.

In the massacre of 1694 his wife and some children were killed by Indians, when William Leathers escaped by running to a garrison.

There was a Benjamin Leathers of North Yarmouth, Me., who married Deborah Ingersoll, 1 Dec. 1686.

Henry Marsh had a grant of forty acres, 23 March 1701/2, "above Coffin's mill, over against Moses Davis his land." This grant was on the north side of Oyster River, and remains of a dam are traceable here, on the farm owned by Frank Bunker a few years ago. Henry Marsh seems to have lived in 1704 at Lubberland, and whether he ever lived on this grant "above Coffin's mill," is uncertain.

MASON

Peter Mason had a grant of land next to Abraham Clark, in 1694. He and wife, Mary, sold land to John Gerrish, 19 Dec. 1692. Widow Mary Mason was admitted to the church at Oyster River 7 July 1728. Deeds show that they had a son, Benjamin, who had wife, Elizabeth, and the following children recorded in Dover, viz., Elizabeth b. 15 May 1716, Benjamin b. 27 March 1718, and Peter b. 22 Sept. 1725.

Peter Mason, probably son of Peter, aged 15 on 14 Oct. 1702, married Sarah, daughter of Ensign John and Elizabeth (Burnham) Davis. He and wife, Sarah, 1 July 1728, sold to Joseph Smith land granted to Robert Burnum, "our grandfather." March 5, 1720/1 Peter Mason and daughters, Hannah, Sarah, and Mary, were baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, together with Isaac Mason, called little brother of Peter. Sarah Mason was a widow 6 April 1747. She conveyed land to her daughter, Mary Drisco, 5 Feb. 1771. The daughter, Hannah, married William Randall 2 Feb. 1724/5.

This is, doubtless, the Francis Mathews who came over with Capt. John Mason's colony in 1634 and helped to build the mills, at Great Works, now South Berwick, Me. He had a lease, 1 Oct. 1637, of 100 acres for a thousand years, "on the northwest side of the great island, commonly called Muskito Hall." This was at Newcastle, N. H. He signed the Exeter Combination in 1639, though doubtless living then near the mouth of Oyster River, where he bought land of William Beard, next to Darby Field, the same year. This land has remained ever since in the family of Mathes, as the surname is now written by many of his descendants. The location is one of the best and most attractive in Durham, commanding a wide view of the river, bay and surrounding lands. The rich soil accounts, to a large degree, for the prominence of the family. Francis Mathews died in 1648. His wife, Thomasine, died in 1690. His estate was settled finally by his son, Benjamin, in 1704.

(Contributed largely by Mr. William L. Palmer of Cambridge, Mass.)

William Munsey was living in Kittery, Me., in 1686. He was a cooper by trade. Some have supposed him to be the same as the William Munsey of Brookhaven, Long Island, 1678, and brother of Francis Munsey of Ipswich and Brookhaven, who married Hannah Adams in Ipswich, 6 Dec. 1659. William Munsey married Margaret, thought to have been daughter of Job Clement (Robert², John¹) and Margaret Dummer (Thomas¹), though this is not proved. He removed to Dover and was drowned in the Pascataqua River, 10 June 1698. He was presented at court in York County, about 1692, for not going to meeting, and he had a grant of land in Dover, 29 July 1695. The following must have been his children, though there is no documentary evidence:

WILLIAM b. 1676; m. 10 Jan. 1708/9, Rosamond Jacklin.

MARGARET b. abt. 1680; d. 29 Jan. 1698/9.

with his mark, in Oyster River in 1716 and received sixteen and two thirds acres in the division of common lands in 1733/4, part of which he conveyed to Solomon Emerson of Dover, 25 April 1757. He married Margaret, probably daughter of James Derry. She was baptized 26 Nov. 1727. Did he marry (2) Ann Perkins, 1 Sept. 1749? He lived near the border line of Durham and Lee, and the bridge near his place across Oyster River is still known as Munsey's Bridge. Three children were baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, 7 Jan. 1727/8:

JONATHAN, constable in 1745, landowner in Lee in 1752, had wife, Elizabeth, in 1761.

He lived in Lee after the separation of that town and refused to sign the Association Test in 1776, although his son, Timothy, signed it. He lived at "Newtown Plains" on the right hand side of the road leading from the Turnpike to Barrington Oak, on land now owned by heirs of Hosea B. Snell. He married Abigail, daughter of Zachariah and Mercy (Conner) Pitman, as shown in the will of his father-in-law. He died apparently between 1803 and 1807. Children were:

PRENDERGAST, PENDERGAST

Prendergast is the name of a parish in Pembrokeshire, in the southern part of Wales, and dates back to the time of the Danish invasion, about 900 A. D. It is now called Prendregast and is a few miles from Haverfordwest. Maurice de Prendergast was one of the seventy knights who with their archers went with the Earl of Strigule, called Strongbow, to the conquest of Ireland, landing at Wexford in the year 1169. Among his descendants may be named Sir Thomas Prendergast, born 1600, and John P. Prendergast, the historian, author of the Cromwellian Settlement of Ireland.

Stephen Pendergast, born 1693, came from County Wexford, Ireland, between 1715 and 1720. He married, at Greenland, N. H., 5 March 1727/8, Jane, daughter of Solomon Cotton. He was constable in Durham in 1738 and died 10 Sept. 1753. His widow died 12 Jan. 1754, aged 52, as her gravestone says, though some say she was born in 1694. He may have had a brother, Dennis Pendergast, who lived in Durham and in his will, 1789, names son, Michael, as his only heir, who married, 31 Oct. 1790, Deborah Woodlock. PERKINS

William Perkins, taxed at Oyster River 1662-75, is said to have been born in Cornwall, Eng., in 1616 and to have died in Newmarket in 1732, aged 116. [N. E. Register.]

But William Perkins deposed, 2 March 1677/8, aged about 39, concerning a meadow owned by John Smart, on the southwest side of Goddard's Creek. He was born, therefore, about 1638, perhaps son of the above William Perkins.

William Perkins and John Perkins took the oath of fidelity at a training, 21 June 1669. William bought land of Thomas Willey, 4 Aug. 1666. He and wife, Elizabeth, 28 Jan. 1669, conveyed to Thomas Edgerly twenty acres on the southwest side of Long Creek. His daughter, Elizabeth, married John Wheeler.

Thomas Perkins had a grant of three acres and a half on Dover Neck for a house lot in 1669.

Samuel Perkins married Mary Tasker. They and the following children were baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams; births recorded in Dover: Hannah born 9 Dec. 1703, Frances born 11 Feb. 1705, Joseph born 25 Aug. 1714, Abigail born 30 April 1717, Samuel born 13 Feb. 1723, and Mary baptized 30 June 1723, twelve years old.

In 1719 Samuel Perkins and John Munsey are called survivors and owners of land granted to James Derry.

Joseph Perkins, wife, Eleanor, and son, Timothy, were baptized 5 May 1728. A daughter, Abigail, was baptized 22 Jan. 1728/9. Joseph, Paul and Elizabeth, children of widow Eleanor Perkins, were baptized at the house of William Buzzell, in Durham, 2 Jan. 1742.

Abraham Perkins lived near Durham Falls and died before 8 Oct. 1770. His son, Abraham, was born 20 Jan. 1771 and married, 14 Jan. 1798, Lydia, daughter of Dea. Nathaniel Norton. Abraham Perkins and Abigail Boardman were published in Durham, 20 Feb. 1814. She was of Newburyport. Perhaps this indicates a second marriage. His children by first marriage were Abraham born 8 Jan. 1799, who married, 1830, Mary Ann, daughter of Rev. Josiah Prentice of Northwood; Lydia born 27 Sept. 1800, and Charles born 11 July 1802.

The children of Abraham and Mary Ann (Prentice) Perkins were Mary Ann Boardman born 24 March 1832, Charles Richmond born 23 June 1834, deceased, Charles Boardman born 5 July 1836, Elizabeth Beathe born 4 July 1839, deceased, and Henry Edwards born 12 May 1843.

He was living, 12 May 1657, on a portion of William Roberts' land and next to Robert Burnham's land, although he did not take a deed of said land till 1664. The inference is that he had married (2) Ann, daughter of William Roberts. She is repeatedly mentioned between 1661 and 1682, as wife of William Pitman. He was rated at Oyster River, 1657-77. His will shows that he died in 1682, leaving the heirs named below. He gave three shillings apiece to the following, Ezekiel Pitman, Ann Pitman, Zachariah Pitman, Hannah Pitman, and Judith Pitman.

His son, John, married Remembrance, daughter of John Ault, and lived at Oyster River Point. Probably both were slain by Indians, in the massacre of 1694.

John Rand, minor, probably son of the last mentioned, chose Francis Matthews for guardian. He married, 17 Dec. 1718, Joanna, daughter of Thomas Willey. This John Rand probably had a sister, Christian Rand, who married, 6 Dec. 1717, Naphtali Kincaid.

REYNOLDS OR RUNNELS

William Reynolds was of Plymouth, Mass., as early as 1634. He received land in Duxbury, 6 Feb. 1637. He married, 3 Aug. 1638, Alice Kitson. He removed, about 1640, to Cape Porpoise, in what is now Kennebunk, Me. He took oath of allegiance to the government of Maine, 5 July 1653. Kept a ferry at Kennebunk. He with wife, Alice, deeded land to son, John, 12 April 1675, conditioned on care for life. He seems to have had a brother, John Reynolds, at the Isles of Shoals. William Reynolds, Jr., is mentioned in the Court Records of York County in 1672, also John Reynolds.

His family seems to have consisted of John, born 1651, who perhaps married Sarah Crawford and d. s. p. in Portsmouth before 1722, leaving 400 acres on the northwest side of Kennebec River and other property in Kennebunk, that was divided among heirs; Samuel, unknown; Job; William; Jane, who married Thomas Wormwood of Wells; and Hope, who married, 23 Oct. 1664, Thomas Sanders, in Saco, Me. [Cf. Pope's Pioneers of Maine and N. H.]

The above Job, son of William Reynolds, is little known. He seems to have lived at Falmouth, Me., for a time. His family were evidently driven out of Maine by Indians.

June 21, 1718, Job Renalds, John Renalds, James Langley and wife, Mary, all of Dover, sold to Thomas Perkins of Portsmouth, all their right, etc., in 200 acres in Arundel, the old name of Kennebunk. [York Deeds, X, 130.]

July 15, 1720, Samuel Renolds of Bradford, Mass., sold to Thomas Perkins, formerly of Greenland now of Cape Porpoise, all right, etc., in 200 acres at Cape Porpoise, which formerly belonged to my honored grandfather, William Renalds, of Cape Porpoise. [York Deeds, X., 130.]

July 30 1720, John Renolds of Oyster River sold to Stephen Harding right to land which was my fathers and grandfathers in Cape Porpoise. [York Deeds, X, 57.]

July 11, 1722, John Buss and Alice, his wife, Richard Blanchard and Sarah, his wife, all of Dover, sold to Stephen Harding of Arundel, alias Cape Porpoise, one sixth part of land formerly belonging to uncle, John Runalds, deceased. [York Deeds, XI, 31.]

May 17, 1721, John Rennels of Oyster River sold to Thomas Perkins all right to 200 acres formerly belonging to uncle, John Reynolds. In this deed he names his grandfather, William Reynolds, and his father, Job Reynolds, deceased. [York Deeds, XIV, 168.]

Job Reynolds signed a petition from Falmouth before 1700. From the above citations and other sources he seems to have had the following children:

SAMUEL of Bradford, b. abt. 1674; m. Abigail Middleton.

She conveyed to Joseph Smith, 3 Feb. 1748/9, her right in the estate of her grandfather, Robert Burnham. Job Runnels bought thirty acres of Naphtali Kincaid, 22 May 1719. ROBERTS

William Roberts was fined for mending the stocks 5:5:1643. Perhaps he did a poor job. Jan. 12, 1645, Darby Field conveyed to William Roberts land at Oyster River, which "was in the use of Thomas Roberts," between lands of Matthew Giles and Thomas Stevenson. This shows that he was related to Thomas Roberts of Dover Neck, perhaps a son, not named in will of Thomas Roberts. On the 6th of 8th month 1650 he and others were fined for going to the ordinary in the time of meeting, on the 25th of May last. In 1664 he deeded his farm to William Pitman and his oldest son, Ezekiel Pitman. It may be that his daughter, Ann, had married William Pitman. William Roberts and Ann Roberts, evidently his wife, gave testimony in 1673. He was killed by Indians in 1676.

Dec. 10, 1720, Hannah Cocks, daughter of William Roberts deceased, and William Hill, grandson to the same William Roberts, sold to Salathiel Denmore (Denbow) all right to 100 acres granted to William Roberts, near Wheelwright's Pond.

April 7, 1727, Timothy Moses and Grace, his wife, sold to Thomas Harris of Dover land which "fell to s^d Grace Moses being daughter to y^e s^d William Roberts and coheir to y^e s^d land."

June 4, 1720, Richard Denbo sold to Salathiel Denbo one share in 200 acres on the north side of Wheelwright's Pond, called Roberts Neck, which formerly belonged to William Roberts. The same day Salathiel Denbo bought two shares of the same property from John Sias and wife, Ann. June 30, 1737/8, Salathiel Denmore sold to Francis Mathes all right to two grants made "to my grandfather William Roberts," near Wheelwright's Pond.

Jan. 2, 1727, John and Sarah Harmon of Scarborough, Me., sold to Thomas Harris of Dover their right in the estate of William Roberts, father of said Sarah Harmon.

Feb. 15, 1726/7, Nicholas Dunn of Kittery, Me., and wife, Deborah, conveyed to Joseph Jenkins of Dover one fifth part of 100 acres granted to William Roberts, deceased, adjacent to Wheelwright's Pond.

The children of William Roberts, then, were as follows:

SCOTT

Clarence W. Scott, professor of history and political economy in New Hampshire College for over thirty years, is a graduate of Dartmouth College. He was admitted to the Vermont bar but did not practice law. He was born in Plymouth, Vt., 20 Aug. 1849. His father, Charles Augustus Scott, was born in Cavendish, Vt., 8 Jan. 1819 and married in 1844 Betsey Watkins, who was born in Reading, Vt., 24 Aug. 1826. Prof. Scott married, 30 April 1888, Harriet Maria Field, born in Montpelier, Vt., 15 Oct. 1855, daughter of Cornelius A. Field, who was born in Berlin, Vt., 4 Feb. 1825 and married, 20 Jan. 1853, Marcia Dewey, born in Berlin, Vt., 12 March 1828. New Hampshire College conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon Prof. Scott in 1913. Children:

CHARLES FIELD b. 22 Jan. 1891. New Hampshire College, 1913.

SUSAN HELEN b. 30 July 1895.

SHEPHERD

Samuel Shepherd was admitted to church, 3 July 1726, with Widow Anne Shepherd, his mother. He married, 23 March 1726/7, Margaret Creighton and had children baptized, viz., Samuel 24 Dec. 1727, who married 21 Oct. 1761, Elizabeth Hill [See page 287 of Vol. I.] and Mary baptized 13 April 1729.

John Shepherd had children baptized, Mary 25 June 1726 and Susanna 6 Jan. 1728/9. He lived near Shepherd's bridge, on the road to Newmarket and may have been father or grandfather of Deborah Shepherd who married Joseph Hearne, 16 Nov. 1796, and of Polly Shepherd who married Ebenezer Kent in 1811. John Shepherd removed to Holderness and was captain of a company of Rogers's Rangers in 1757.

In 1792 Reuben Bickford was released from the demands of the town for £15, if he would take care of his sister Shepherd and three children for three years.

William Shepherd was baptized 21 April 1728. He lived in Durham, 1726-47, on ten acres next to Joseph Bickford, on the east side of the Newmarket road. It is probable that the above Samuel, John and William were brothers. William Shepherd had one third of a share in the division of common lands in 1734.

Rebecca Shepherd married Joseph Hanson, 28 Nov. 1727.

SIAS

Some think this family is of Huguenot origin and that the name may have been Seyes. John Cyas was of Wells, Me., in 1698 and then married Ann Pitman. [See York Deeds, Vol. V.] She was doubtless daughter of William Pitman of Oyster River, whither John Sias removed immediately after his marriage. In 1701 he had a grant of twenty acres, "adjoining his house." He had a share in the division of common lands in 1733, as also did John, Jr., Samuel, Solomon and Clement Sias. His homestead was sold by his son, Joseph, to Samuel Demeritt, 18 Sept. 1756. His wife was baptized by the Rev. Hugh Adams, 7 June 1724. She made a deposition 22 Feb. 1734, aged about 62, that forty-five years ago she lived with William Follett and raked hay on his marsh near Johnson's Creek four or five seasons. [Court Files, 23424.]

SMALL

Edward Small, son of Francis Small the emigrant, born about 1651, married Mary, daughter of Capt. John and Mary (Field) Woodman. He is said to have been in Jones' garrison during the Indian raid of 1694. There were granted to Edward Small, 19 March 1693/4, "forty acres of land joining to his plantation above the head of Oyster River, with the privilege on both sides of said river for erecting and setting up a mill." He removed to Chatham, Mass., then called Monomoit, and died there the last day of April 1702. He was a carpenter and had charge of the building of the church at Monomoit. [See letter of Capt. John Woodman in chapter on Military History.] His widow returned to Oyster River and, 10 June 1707, Jonathan Woodman and wife, Elizabeth, "for y^e natural love and affection which I have & bear to my sister Mary Small," conveyed to her twenty acres on the south side of Oyster River betwixt the mill pond and the river. Just here an old cellar is easily found. Mary Small had a grant of twenty acres, 24 Oct. 1721, for doctoring one Archibell Smith, who had a very bad wound in his knee. This land she conveyed with the buildings thereon, in 1742, to her two grandsons, Edward and Joseph Small of Durham. Children were:

John Smart came with wife and two sons from Norfolk county, Eng., to Hingham, Mass., in June 1635. The next year he removed to Exeter, now Newmarket. His son, Robert, died about 1703, leaving a son, Robert. From these are descended, doubtless, all the Smarts of Durham.

SMYTH

George Smyth is first mentioned 20 March 1641, when he and John Dam were appraisers of John Phillips' estate. He was appointed Court Recorder in 1646. On the 22d day of 2d month 1648, it was ordered that "Mr. George Smith, William Pomfret, and John Hall, being chosen, shall have full power & authority to put an end to all Controversies that shall at any time arise, for the space of one whole year." The commissioners chosen for the same year were Mr. Wiggin, Mr. Smith and Mr. Gibbons. He was assistant at Court, i. e., associate judge, 1649-52, and witness at various times from 1643 to 1652. As agent of John Ugrove, 18 Dec. 1650, he sold to Dennis Downing house and land in Kittery. He was rated at 32 pounds, 8 shillings, in 1648 and at 30 pounds in 1649, with a line drawn across the figures, as though erased, he having nothing to be taxed for. Only two inhabitants of Dover, fishermen, had a lower rate than George Smyth. On the 21st of 3d month, 1652, he took the deposition of James Wall. He administered the estate of George Webb in 1651. The last act recorded of him was 27:7:1653, when he took the depositions of several men of Exeter and signed his name George Smythe.*

There is no deed with his name as grantee, nor as grantor. There is no hint that he had any grant from the town. He probably lived at Dover Neck and may have had a house lot there of three or four acres, as all the first settlers had. There is no probate record concerning him. He disappears in 1653. The statement made in Historical Memoranda of Ancient Dover that his widow married (1)—— Munday and (2)—— Nason of Kittery seems to rest on no foundation. It is certain that no Nason of Kittery so married.

The Pioneers of Maine and New Hampshire says that George Smith deposed, 18:8:1652, that he had made use of lands about Lampril River, bought of the Indians, and refers to Mass. Archives, 112-44. This is an error. John Ault and Richard York made deposition coram George Smyth about such lands.

The following citations afford a little light. Oct. 1, 1645; "George Smyth for his adventure of 25 l. is granted 200 acres of land w^r they shall require it, so that it lie neith^r wthin y^e limits of any towne, nor w^r it may hind^r y^e planting of anoth^r towne, hereafter to be granted, w^{ch} is agreable to other grants formerly made upon like grounds." *

"In answ^r to the petition of George Smith the Court, having perused the original assignment of John Smith unto y^e petitioner & rec'd information from some of the Court of the petitioners right & of a probability that some lands were granted the petitioner for y^e same some years since, the records whereof can not now be found, judge meet to grant y^e petitioner two hundred acres of land in lieu of the twenty-five pounds adventure disbursed by y^e s^d John Smith in y^e yeare 1628, to be laid out in some free place by Mr. Gettings & Mr. Metcalf of Ipswich, who are appointed to see the same done accordingly," etc.†

Two hundred acres were laid out to George Smith upon Asi-both River, 7 May 1662, and again, 11th of 3d month 1672, two hundred acres were laid out to George Smith, on the "north side of Merrimacke River, about three or four miles beyond the river, on the way as ye go to Jeremiah Hills & on the west side of Bever Brook, at the head of the long pond."‡

There was a George Smith, son of Thomas, who died in Ipswich in 1661 and another George Smith who died in Ipswich 15 Dec. 1674. His will mentions wife, unnamed, and children, Thomas, Samuel, Sarah, Newman, Rebecca, Elizabeth, and Joanna.

Was the George Smyth of Dover the same person as the George Smith of Ipswich? How was either related to the John Smith who "adventured" £25 in 1628?

SMITH

Not a shred of evidence has been found that George Smyth was the father of James Smith and Joseph Smith of Oyster River, nor that the two last were related at all. "James Smith for contempt in open Court for keeping on his hatt notwithstanding he was admonished & bidden take it off is sentenced to be set by the heeles one hower." This is found in Court Records, II, 75b and is dated 30 June 1663. It is the earliest mention of James Smith and shows his independent spirit and that he was probably a Quaker. The next record of him strengthens such a conclusion. "James Smith for not coming to meeting for severall months, Court finds 14 days & one day confest to have been at a Quaker meeting, sentenced to pay 5s a day for not coming to meeting is 3*p* 10s & 10*d* for going to y^e Quaker meeting & fees." This was 1 July 1663. [Court Records, II, 77b.]

He took the oath of fidelity, 29 June 1669. The same year he bought land of Henry Brown and of Teague Royall, on the south side of Oyster River and above the Falls, near what is now called Broth Hill. He was licensed to keep a public house, 9 Oct. 1686. He married Sarah, daughter of Ensign John and Jane (Peasley) Davis, named as Sarah Smith in her father's will. He died of a surfeit produced by running to assist Capt. Floyd in a battle with the Indians at Wheelwright's Pond, 6 July 1690. His widow and two sons were killed by Indians 18 July 1694. He was a tailor by trade.

SMITH

Joseph Smith,* born 1640, witnessed a deed 9:12:1657. He bought of Matthew Williams, 14 Sept. 1660, forty acres on the north side of Oyster River, not far from its mouth. The same year he had a grant of "a small piece of wast land on the north side of Oyster River for a house lott," between the lot of Matthew Williams and that of William Williams, Jr. He had a grant of ten acres adjoining his house lot on the northwest, 19 March 1693/4, and sixty acres on the north side of Lamprey River the same year. He had a garrison house and died therein 15 Dec. 1727. He married Elizabeth Bickford, daughter of John and Temperance. She died 25 May 1727. In his will he gave £12 for repairing the Friends' meeting house at Dover, which suggests that he was a Quaker, and the suspicion is confirmed by the language of the following paper, found among the Probate Records, VI, 58:

"Mary Tasket Dr. to Joseph Smith 1697 total 2-4-9.

THOMPSON

Some have tried to connect the Thompson family of Durham with David Thompson, who was living at Odiorne's Point, in what is now Rye, as early as 1623. He had his fish-weir at Thompson's Point, just below the mouth of Cochecho River. He married, at Plymouth, England, 13 July 1613, Amias Cole. He removed to Thompson's Island in Boston harbor, and after his death his widow married Samuel Maverick. John Thompson, son of David, was said to be "of London" in 1650, when he mortgaged his island above named, yet some think he settled in Weymouth, Mass., whence he removed to Mendon, Mass., and died there between 1684 and 1686. There is no evidence that the Thompsons of New Hampshire and Maine are descended from him.

William Thompson had a grant of land in Dover in 1656, the same year that a dozen Scotchmen who had worked in the saw mills of Kittery had their grants. His descendants are called Scotchmen in the History of Kennebunkport. The tradition that he was a Scotchman is found in both the Maine and the New Hampshire branches of the Thompson family. The indications are that he was one of those prisoners taken by Oliver Cromwell at the battle of Dunbar and sent to Boston. [See the chapter on Exiles from Scotland.]

The grant of fifty acres made to William Thompson in 1656 lay "beyond Cochecho log swamp," and it was conveyed by John Thompson of Dover, 8 Nov. 1715, to John Tuttle. In the conveyance it is declared to be land "granted to my father William Thompson by the town of Dover." This fixes the relationship of the first John Thompson of Oyster River. There is no evidence that William Thompson ever lived on this grant. In the same year, 15 Oct. 1656, a grant made to John White by the town of Kittery, Maine, in 1651, was assigned to William Thompson. This land was a little below Sturgeon Creek in what is now Eliot, Me. It is probable that he had married a daughter of John White, and it may be easily conjectured that he had previously worked in the saw mill at Sturgeon Creek. All the towns were then trying to draw settlers by grants of land. In 1659 William Thompson was presented at York Court "for rebellion against his father and mother-in-law" and gave bond for good behavior. He died in 1676.

In the settlement of his estate, 1677, the court record of York county says, "There is fifty acres of Land in Dover Townshipe about Chutchechah w^{ch} hee gave to his two sonnns that live at Doer, vidgt. William Tomson and Robert Tomson & John White. The children left are John Tomson the elldest 18 years ould not placed out, William Tomson Living with Richard Otis, apprentice, 16 years old, James Tomson a lame boy 11 years not placed out, Robert Tomson 13 years ould living with Toby Hanson apprentice, Allexander Tomson 6 years ould, not disposed of, Judeth Tomson 2 years ould not disposed of." This is an exact copy. The Maine Recorder has a typographical error, changing 18 to 15 for the age of John.

The other members of this family are sufficiently traced in Old Kittery and Her Families, pp. 767-770, and in Sinnett's Our Thompson Family. We are now concerned only with the oldest, who settled at Oyster River.

John Thompson married, between 1678 and 1680, Sarah, daughter of Capt. John and Mary (Field) Woodman. He gave a bond, in 1684, for the proper administration of his father's estate and to provide for "James his lame impotent brother." James proved to be abundantly able as a tailor to take care of himself and to raise a large family, having many prominent descendants in Maine. March 30, 1708, John Thompson and James Thompson, "sons of William Tomson late of Kittery," conveyed the homestead at "Cold Harbor," in what is now Eliot, Me., to Francis Allen. The deed was witnessed by Jonathan Woodman, Robert Huckins, and David Kincaid. John Thompson's will, dated 12 April 1733, was probated 24 July 1734. Wife Sarah survived him. Children were:

I went to Salem, Mass., to see it. It has no marks of antiquity. It is of white maple, such as were common one hundred and fifty years ago. Under one of the small drawers were written these words and dates "1658. Jno. Thompson, Ipswich" and "A. D. 1658, 4th 15th.," which was interpreted to mean the date when the desk was made by John, son of David Thompson, who never lived in Ipswich, Mass. Now, John Thompson, son of William, was, as we have seen, past 18 years of age soon after his father died in 1676. He was born, therefore, in 1658, and that date on the bottom of the desk drawer may be the precise date of his birth, 15th of 4th month, 1658. It is known that Alexander Thompson, one of the Scots taken at the battle of Worcester and sent to Boston in the John and Sara, settled in Ipswich, being the servant of Mr. Starkweather. The similarity of names in the families of Alexander Thompson of Ipswich and William Thompson of Kittery suggest strongly a relationship. Some tradition concerning this may have led to the writing of the record in the desk many years later by an unknown hand. It is conceivable that William Thompson of Kittery went to Ipswich, Mass., to see his brother or near relative, Alexander Thompson, and so his first son, John Thompson, may have been born there.

The branch of the Thompson family at Conway has a compass and sun dial, "said by tradition" to have been the property of David Thompson. Tradition often errs, as in the case of the "three brothers." That compass and sun dial may be safely classed with the enormous quantity of chairs and tables, "brought over in the Mayflower."

"Benedictus Torr Late of old England and Leah Knight of douer widow were Joyned to geather in marriage by John Woodman Esq^r Justis of Peace the 17 day of July An:dom 1704." So the record reads. She was widow of John Knight, who settled in Dover, on the road to Oyster River, earlier than 1689, when his garrison house was burned by Indians. A few years later it was rebuilt by Mr. Torr, and the place has been in the possession of the Torr family ever since. The lumber of the old garrison, that stood over 125 years, forms a part of houses now standing near its site. Benedictus Torr had no children and sent for his kinsman, Vincent Torr, to come over and inherit his property. He is called "cousin," which at that time usually meant nephew.

Vincent Torr was of the parish of Black Otton, Devonshire, and emigrated at the age of eighteen, about the year 1726. Both names appear on a petition in 1732. Vincent Torr married, about 1739, Lois Pinkham (James^a, John^a, Richard^l), born 2 March 1721/2. He died in Feb. 1774. She was living in 1768.

WATSON

David Wilder Watson, son of David Watson, who married Elizabeth Ann Odiorne, daughter of Theophilus and Sarah (Gordon) Odiorne, came into possession of the Odiorne farm at Pascataqua Bridge. He married, 7 July 1879, Hattie Soule, born 27 Jan. 1857 in Boston. She was daughter of John P. and Harriet (Campbell) Soule. She died in Durham 31 Oct. 1911. She richly deserves the title of "A Great Mother." She was the leader of her class in one of the Boston High Schools and worked untiringly to send five of her children through New Hampshire College. Notwithstanding the many cares and labors that belong to the life of a busy farmer's wife she found time to be one of the foremost in the activities of church and society. She served at different times as church chorister, member of the school board, chorister, lecturer and master of Scammell Grange, lecturer of Eastern New Hampshire Grange, superintendent of the Sunday School, head of the Ladies' Missionary Society, president of the Woman's Club, chairman of many committees, etc. At the same time she gave her children the best of training in the home, Sunday School, church and college. It is not perfectly easy to take a large family of children regularly several miles to church, but it can be happily done, as the writer hereof remembers. Too many farmers and their wives are now getting too indolent and unappreciative of the benefits of going to church regularly, and so Sunday is turned into a holiday or work-day. Honor to the noble women of the past, whose example should be imitated.

Thomas Willey was in possession of "a breadth of land," received probably from Darby Field, at Oyster River Point, in 1645. He married Margaret, widow of Stephen Crawford, who had land at Oyster River, and left a daughter, Sarah, who was Sarah Runnels of Portsmouth in 1692, when she sold to her brother, John Willie, all right to land at Oyster River owned by her father. Crawford is sometimes written Graffit.

Sept. 3, 1680, Thomas Willey, aged 63, and Margaret Willey, his wife, aged 65, deposed that they had lived in Oyster River forty years or thereabouts. Widow Margaret and son, John, were appointed administrators of Thomas Willey's estate, 7 Sept. 1681. She afterward married Barnard Squier.

He married, second or third, the widow of Darby Field, and her name seems to have been Agnes, for William Williams and wife, Agnes, signed a deed 18 June 1674. He settled in Newbury, Mass., and was one of the prominent men in the history of that town, representing it several times in the General Court. His wife's name was Joanna.

Capt. John Woodman, son of the above named Edward Woodman, born 1630, married, 15 July 1656, Mary, daughter of Darby Field of Oyster River Point. We may assume that he had been living at Oyster River before that date. He had a grant of land soon after, which is recorded in Dover Town Book as follows, "Given & granted by y^e Selectmen & with y^e approbation of y^e maj^r part of y^e inhabitants of Oyster River as appears under the selectmens hands y^e 30th 7th mo (60 unto John Woodman his heirs & assigns Twenty Acres of Land att y^e west side of W^m Beards Creek & on y^e north side of Stoney brook the brook being y^e first bounds unto y^e afores^d Creek & on y^e west side of Mr Hills Line runs ninety five rod to a marked tree by y^e high way & from y^t corner to a marked tree by a gutter & from thence bounded unto y^e afores^d head excepting a Lott of marsh & his Lott was laid out & bounded by Ensign John Davis & Rob^t Burnum y^e 7th 9th (72.)"

He here built his garrison on an elevated spot with commanding view, where it could be easily defended. The unsuccessful attack of 1694 was the proof of his wisdom. INDEX OF NAMES

The index of names in both volumes of this history has been prepared with great care by Col. Lucien Thompson. The reader will notice that names are spelled in several ways by different authorities. Sally, Salley and Sarah are all indexed as Sarah. Sometimes the proper middle name or initial is given and sometimes it is not, owing to different sources of information. Wives are indexed under maiden names and names of their husbands, thus making the index very complete. Many first names as well as surnames are spelled in more than one way, and effort has been made to print the spelling adopted by each individual, since everybody has a right to spell his own name as he pleases. Of course some inaccuracies will readily be pardoned, without charging all mistakes to the printer. To get every name and date correct in a work like this is something that never has been done.
